THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

PREFACE

Upon professional advice, I sat down to write an introduction to this book, to give a brief description of its contents, and to outline some of its high points. The harder I tried to think of a quick description, the more my head started to hurt. Finally, after sitting and attempting to think for hours, I concluded that the best introduction was none at all. The problem with man is his impatience. We all have become so impatient that we don't have time to sit down and study anything anymore. We thrive on brief statements, brief letters, and most of the things we read must be short.

Therefore, I have no introduction. However, I do have a brief statement to make: Buy this book, sit down, and read it. You will either be glad you did or angry with the writer.

THE FOUR BEASTS

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

Peace to all that seek knowledge and truth in the name of our Lord and Savior, Jesus the Christ. May the Lord open your eyes that you may see and understand what you are about to read.

This book is intended to serve as a Bible companionship to help you to understand the history and prophecies written in the King James Version of the Holy Bible. It begins in the 7th chapter of Daniel and ends in the book of Revelation, which was given to the Apostle John from the ultimate prophet, Jesus the Messiah.

We will start at the beginning with the Four Winds of Heaven, which Daniel saw as four great beasts. These beasts represent four great kingdoms, which were to rise, domination and rule the world without rivalry or compromising opposition.

We know that there are some who will oppose this book and its prophecies, and some may name several great civilizations; such as Assyria, Egypt, Mongolia, etc. We know that there were many great civilizations, but we know also that none rose to world domination and became absolute rulers of all known civilizations except those four kingdoms spoken of by Daniel the prophet.

Before I continue, I would like to clarify exactly how I quoted and made reference to the word of God for those of us who are not familiar with how the Holy Bible is read. For example, when Genesis 2:12 is quoted as a reference, this simply means to turn to the book of Genesis in the Bible, go to the 2nd chapter of Genesis, and begin reading the 12th verse. If Revelation 16:3-12 is quoted, turn to the book of Revelation, go to the 16th chapter of Revelation, and begin reading the 3rd verse through the 12th verse. Now, pick up your Bible and let us begin to explore and rightfully divide the scripture. If you are thinking that you have no need to know prophecy, read what a prominent prophet and an apostle said: Ezekiel 14:19-20. (Verse 19) "Or if I send a pestilence into the land, and pour out my fury upon it in blood, to cut off from it man and beast:" (Verse 20) "Though Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, as I live, saith the Lord God, they shall deliver neither son nor daughter; they shall but deliver their own souls by their righteousness." Philippians 2:12. "Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling."

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

Both Ezekiel and Paul are telling us that each person is responsible for his or her own soul, and no one else can get you into God's kingdom whether it be your pastor, bishop, teacher, etc. You and only you can save yourself through obedience to God. Therefore, you do have a need to know not only what is in the book, but the whole Bible from Genesis to Revelation. As Peter said in Acts 2nd chapter, verse 40, "Save yourselves from this untoward generation."

When Daniel, in the 7th chapter of Daniel, and John, in the 13th chapter of Revelation said they saw beasts rise up out of the sea, they were talking about governments and people. The beast represents governments and the sea represents people.

We will talk just enough about the first three beasts to enable you to find them in your history books or encyclopedias. However, we will take a real close look at the fourth beast because he is the one under which we are still serving, although we are ignorant of it. He is the one that shall ascend out of the bottomless pit and he is our chief concern.

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

"The lion represents Babylon, from Nebuchadnezzar to Belshazzar"

The first beast was like a lion and had eagle's wings; Daniel 7:4. This was the Babylonian empire. Babylon rose to world domination under King Nebuchadnezzar in 605 to 562 B.C. Daniel 2:37-38, Nebuchadnezzar was told, (verse 37) "Thou, O king, art a king of kings: for the God of the heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory." (Verse 38) "And wheresoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the heaven hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all. Thou art this head of gold."

After the death of Nebuchadnezzar, Belshazzar, his son, took over. However, his rule was short lived because he failed to acknowledge God, so Belshazzar was killed (See Daniel the 5th chapter). He was succeeded by Darius the Median (See Daniel the 6th chapter). That was the end of the Babylonian empire and the beginning of the Mede and Persian Empire, which brings us to the second beast.

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

"The bear represents Medo Persia from Darius the Mede to Darius III, the Persian"

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

The second beast was like a bear, with three ribs in its mouth (see Daniel the 7th chapter). This beast represents the Medo-Persian Empire. It's first king, Darius the Mede, inherited the Babylonian kingdom at age sixty-two but did not strengthen it and was ignored by history. (Darius the Mede is not to be confused with the Darius that came along later in history. They were all Persians and adopted the name as a title.)

Because of a lack of history on Darius the Mede, we must advance to 12 years later in history to pick up Cyrus the Persian. Thus, the median empire became the Medo-Persian Empire.

The Bible even shows the apparent weakness of Darius because the horn that represents him and his people, the Medes, was shorter than the Persians' horn. It also reveals the duality of this empire by revealing it even as another beast; A ram with two horns. One horn represented Media and the other horn represented Persia.

“One horn on the ram represents the Medes and the other, the Persians”

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

In Daniel 8:3, Daniel said, “the two horns were high, but one was higher than the other, and the higher one came up last,” This last horn represented the Persians, and Cyrus was a Persian who took over the kingdom and reigned from 550 B.C. to 530 B.C. Cyrus controlled the kingdom after putting down many revolts, and as king of the universe, proclaimed peace for all. He was later killed while putting down another revolt on the eastern border of the kingdom.

After the death of Cyrus, there came three kings who sur-named themselves Darius I, Darius II, and Darius III. Even though a few Persian kings ruled under other names, there was a Darius ruling when Alexander The Great assaulted and took the kingdom in 334 B.C. This classic battle was even foretold by the prophet Daniel in the book of Daniel 8:4-8, 20-22. (Verse 4) “I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward; so that no beasts might stand before him, neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand; but he did according to his will, and became great.” (Verse 5) “And as I was considering, behold, an he goat came from the west on the face of the whole earth, and touched not the ground; and the goat had a notable horn between his eyes.”

“The goat represents the Greek Empire. The one horn is its first king, Alexander The Great”

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

(Verse 6) “And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran unto him in the fury of his power.” (Verse 7) “And I saw him come close unto the ram, and he was moved with choler against him, and smote the ram, and brake his two horns: and there was no power in the ram to stand before him, but he cast him down to the ground, and stamped upon him: and there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand.” (Verse 8) “Therefore the he goat waxed very great: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and for it came up four notable ones toward the four winds of heaven.” (Verse 20) “The ram which thou sawest having two horns are the kings of Media and Persia.” (Verse 21) “And the rough goat is the king of Grecia: and the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king.” (Verse 22) “Now that being broken, whereas four stood up for it, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not in his power.”

“The four horns on this goat represent Alexander’s four generals that rose after his death and inherited the kingdom”

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

As we mentioned earlier, the Medo-Persian Empire was also shown as a ram with two horns to show that it was ruled by kings of two different nationalities. This ram was assaulted by the goat with one horn between its eyes. This goat represented the Greeks and the one horn represented Alexander The Great.

After Alexander had defeated Medo-Persia, later Egypt, and then all other rebellious people, the world was under his rulership. But Alexander died in 323 B.C. at a young age and had no blood successor with any power. Therefore, after some battles among his officers, four of his generals rose to power and took the title of king. Now, we have four kings ruling over one kingdom, thus dominating all known civilization.

These four generals were represented by the four horns that rose up out of the head of the goat after the one horn had been broken. This broken horn represented Alexander's death (see Daniel 8:21-22). The defeat of the ram with two horns marked the end of the Medo-Persian Empire.

The third beast was like a leopard with four wings on its back and it had four heads (see Daniel 7:6). This beast represented the Greek Empire. As previously mentioned, the Greek Empire was also represented by another beast, the goat that attached the ram which had two horns in Daniel 8:5-8 and Daniel 8:20-22. The four heads on the leopard and the four horns that rose up on the head of the goat are the same kings. These four generals that became kings, were Lysimachus, Ptolemy, Cassander, and Seleucus. After efforts failed by each king to overthrow the other, they all settled down and ruled the Greek Empire in their separate regions. The empire was one, just as the leopard was one with four heads.

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

The Leopard represent the Greek empire. The four heads on this leopard represent the same four generals that inherited the kingdom.

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

These four kings were not able to maintain this forced peace that was agreed upon because each wanted to rule the entire empire and they began to war among themselves. Eventually, the kingdom was severely fragmented and two kings were eliminated. Cassander died in 297 B.C. and Lysimachus died in 281 B.C. after Seleucus defeated him, and the kings were down to two. The king of the north, Seleucus (whose descendants were defeated by Rome), and the king of the south, Ptolemy (whose descendants were also defeated by Rome), which at that time were Syria and Egypt. Because of constant battles between the two, the rest of the kingdom was left to mind itself, thus leaving room for another people to grow into power. These were the people of the peninsula, which later became Italy, out of which grew Rome, our fourth and most fierce beast, mentioned in the 7th chapter of Daniel. So terrible was this state, that Daniel had no beast in the creation with which to compare or identify it. Therefore, Daniel just called it a dreadful and terrible beast.

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

The beast represents Rome. The head represents all the emperors of Rome, from Octavian to Romulus Augustulus. The ten (10) horns represent the men that tried to restore Rome after it's fall.

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

The fourth beast was dreadful, terrible, had ten horns and was different from all the other beasts before it. In Daniel 7:7-8, this beast also had another little horn that rose and plucked up three of the first horns.

This horn represent all the religious leaders from the first one to the coming of Jesus.

Before we can discuss the ten horns on this beast, and the little horn, before which three of the first ten were destroyed, we must identify the head on which the horns set and the beast itself. This beast, the Roman Empire, first put the Italian peninsula in order by waging war against the other communities that had settled on it, most of which had their own cultures and laws. The largest and most organized tried, other than the Roman townships, were the Samnities. As the Romans continued their wars of expansion against the smaller communities, they would have minor clashes with the Samnities from time to time. However, no major battles developed from them.⁸

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

Finally the Romans captured Naples and the Samnities struck back. War ensued. There were defeats and victories for both sides. Long, hard campaigns and truces did not last. Most of the smaller tribes in the mountainous areas of the peninsular Italy sided with the Samnities, as did many of the Greek city-states along the coast. The tribes of Southern Italy, enemies to the Greeks, usually sided with Rome. In the end, the Samnites combined forces with the Etruscans and with the Gauls of Northern Italy. By 290 B.C., the Samnities had been defeated, then the Etruscans, and later, the Gauls.

Most of the Greek city-states in the peninsula were brought into the Roman state, some as subjects, others as allies. After a few more battles and even two defeats in 280 B.C., the Romans finally prevailed. They quickly subjugated all the remaining independent communities. The entire Italian peninsula was now a confederation including about two hundred autonomous states, among which Rome held supreme power. Rome, now being in total control of three to four million inhabitants and many powerful armies, set its sights beyond its borders. After some military defeats, the Romans finally conquered outside enemies, such as the Gauls, Carthaginians and other surrounding neighbors. Rome grew and expanded in territory and power. In 64 B.C., under the leadership of Pompey, Rome conquered Syria, the kingdom of the north. Thus, they put an end to the dynasty started by Alexander The Great's general, Seleucus.

At that time, Rome and Egypt were on friendly terms but as the years passed, power struggles took place within the Roman state. Julius Caesar was appointed sole dictator after rising to prominence over Pompey, his sons, and several other potential leaders. Caesar was assassinated on the 15th of March 44 B.C in a conspiracy led by Marcus Junius Brutus after making many enemies. He also made many reforms. The citizens of Rome turned against the conspirators and most of the army followed the lead of the anti-republican, (Caesar's Calvary leader), Mark Antony, who spent most of his time with his mistress Cleopatra, the queen of Egypt. While Mark Anthony was in Egypt making his own plans, Octavian, who became the first Roman emperor, rose to power and established his supreme rule in Italy and in the western and central provinces. A civil war broke out between Octavian and Mark Anthony. The war ended in 31 B.C. with Octavian the victor. Anthony and Cleopatra committed suicide and Egypt became a Roman Province, thus bringing to an end the Kingdom of the south, which had been ruled over the Alexander's general Ptolemy. With the fall of Egypt went the last vestige of the once great Greek Empire. Octavian was given the title Augustus and from that time on, Rome was no longer called the Roman State, but the Roman Empire, and was the undisputed possessor of all known civilization. The supreme ruler was no longer called dictator, but Emperor, which was the head of the fourth beast. With the head, a succession of emperors in place, the Roman Empire enjoyed quiet order and internal peace, and was in control from 31 B.C. to 235 A.D.

After 235 A.D., chaos started to set in. First, from internal corruption among high officials, which weakened the empire, then pressure from outside nations, over which they once had control. With an increasing number of civil wars, and Roman generals fighting against each other, the empire could no longer stop the advances of outside forces. Because of these internal and external problems, Rome reverted to totalitarianism, and that's when cruel treatment of the public set in. The suffering became unbearable.

Because of excessive cruelty, Romans started to turn to a religion that stressed love and charity. It promised redemption, resurrection, and in the afterlife, happiness unattainable on earth. Until it became worldly with the exercise of power, Christianity meant alienation from life. Total Alienation. There were many other religions in the empire, but when Constantine I (called "The Great") rose to power, he supported Christianity. As soon as Christianity was recognized, laws for the observance of Sunday as the Christian Sabbath day were enacted. Constantine, in 321 A.D., prohibited all business on that day except necessary agricultural labor. Constantine died in 337 A.D., receiving a Christian baptism before his death.

Rome was not able to stop its outside attackers. It finally collapsed in 476 A.D., when its last emperor, Romulus Augustulus was deposed by the Herulians under the leadership of Odoacer, the first of the Germanic tribes to sack and rule the Roman state. I used the word "state" because the empire had long since fragmented and Rome had lost control of the world.

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

After the fall of the empire, the Christian church stepped in and for at least 1000 years, gave Europe a measure of unity. The pope, who had little or no power under the Roman emperors, had grown to be more powerful than the barbarian kings who tried to recreate the Roman Empire. The pope claimed his authority descended from the apostle Peter, to whom Jesus had said, "Thou art Peter and upon this rock I will build my church."

This will bring us to the ten horns on the head of the dreadful and terrible beast mentioned in Daniel 7:7-8. The head of the beast represents the emperors who ruled Rome during its empire. The ten horns represent ten men who tried to restore Rome and make it a world dominating empire again. The little horn that had eyes like a man and a mouth speaking great things represents the men that took on the title of the Pope. Being that this little horn will continue until the second coming of Jesus, we understand it is the office of the Pope that will make the difference. It does not matter how many men hold that office, they inherit the power that comes with it, and are all represented by that little horn.

Daniel 7:9-10 tells us about the Judgment and the opening of the Books the same White Throne Judgment spoken of in the 20th chapter of Revelation. Daniel 7:9 says, "I beheld till the thrones were cast down, and the Ancient of days did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like the fiery flame, and his wheels as burning fire." (Verse 10) "A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him: thousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgment was set, and the books were opened." Daniel 7:11 says, (Verse 11) "I beheld then because of the voice of the great words which the horn spake; I beheld even till the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flame." Additionally, Revelation 20: 11-15 says: (Verse 11) "And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them." (Verse 12) "And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their words." (Verse 14) "And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire."

This is the second death.” (Verse 15) “And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.”

The prophet Daniel spoke of the Ancient of days and his throne, and the thousands that stood before him, and the judgment, and the beast slain and given to the burning flame; because of the words the little horn spoke and the Apostle John, in Revelation, spoke of the same things. He saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, and the dead, (thousands) both small and great standing before him, the books were opened, and those that were not found in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.

It is reasonable to ask, how many judgment days are there? Only one. Daniel and John are talking about the same time. That is only one of the reasons why we know that the little horn will continue until the Lord comes.

Chapter II

THE TEN HORNS AND WHAT THEY REPRESENT

THE TEN HORNS AND WHAT THEY REPRESENT

Now that the emperor (the head) no longer exists, we are left with the ten horns on the head of the beast. The first three horns that were plucked up by the roots are the Herulians, the Ostrogoths, and the Vandals. Odoacer, the leader of the Herulians, was sometimes looked upon as the leader of the Ostrogoths, but in truth he was a usurper, and was later assassinated by the real king of the Ostrogoths, Theodoric II.

Odoacer deposed the last Roman emperor in 476 A.D. and governed Italy as a representative of the Roman emperor of the East, thus becoming the first foreign ruler to govern the Roman state in Italy. This Odoacer and his Herulians were the first of the ten horns on the head of the fourth beast.

"This beast represents the Roman Empire before any of the men had died that tried to restore it after its fall."

"King Theodoric II, led his Ostrogoths into Italy in 493 A.D. and besieged the Herulians in Ravenna. Odoacer surrendered and was assassinated in 493 A.D." ²¹

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

The Herulians were never heard of again” They represented the first horn that was plucked up by the roots.

“There were nine (9) horn left after the defeat of the Herulians.”

“The Ostrogoths, after vanquishing the Herulian, became the second foreign power to rule the Roman state in Italy. Under the Ostrogoths, Italy was still one state, but a state in which two distinct nations lived, each with its own political organizations and its own version of Christianity. The Romans were Catholic, and the Ostrogoths were called the Arian Version.”

“While King Theodoric II was busy carving himself a spot out of the once great Roman Empire, his brother-in-law, King Gaiseric, the leader of the Vandals, conquered all of Roman Africa with the exception of Bovia, and Cirta (Constantine). The Vandals held dominion over North Africa from Cirenaica to the Atlantic Ocean, including the Balearic Islands, Corsica, Sardinia, and the Port of Sicily.” “After both King Theodoric II of the Ostrogoths and King Gaiseric of the Vandals died, their successors took over. Belonging to the Arian version of Christianity, they severely persecuted the Catholics and both nations were defeated by Justinian, who held the title of Roman Emperor of the East.”²³

“Justinian waged war on the Vandals and defeated them in 533 A.D. The Vandals no longer figured as a nation in history.”

²⁴ Now, the second horn on the head of the fourth beast has been plucked up by the roots.

“There were eight (8) horns left after the defeat of the Vandals.”

Justinian, bent on reestablishing the unity of the empire, sent an expeditionary force to Italy in 535 A.D. and attacked the Ostrogoths. After almost two decades of ferocious war, they finally defeated him. After their defeat, the Ostrogoths disappeared from the pages of history.²⁵ Now, the third horn was plucked by the roots.

"The Ostrogoths being defeated left only seven (7) horns, plus the religious leader."

With the Herulians, Vandals, and Ostrogoths now gone, this left seven horns on the head of the fourth beast. The first of the seven horns was Justinian. Being of the order of the Byzantine emperors and looked upon as the legitimate ruler, Justinian was also looked upon as the head of the Christian church. As were his predecessors, he was crowned in Hagia Sophia, the Church of Holy Wisdom. Justinian died in 565 A.D.²⁶ His death represented the passing of the first of the seven horns left on the head of the fourth beast. Now, only six were left.

“From the time of Constantine, the Roman Empire looked upon Byzantine emperors as the head of the Christian Church. However, disputes over doctrine weakened Byzantine authority and in 800 A.D., Pope Leo III, head of the Church in Rome, crowned Charles, King of the Franks, as Emperor of the Holy Roman Empire. Charles was later called Charlemagne. The crowning of Charlemagne was a big ceremony. The Italians were proud because there had been no Emperor in the west since 476.”²⁷ But, this also led to a rift between Western Christianity (Catholic) and Eastern Christianity (Orthodox), as it exists today. This was the first time the name “holy” had been placed in front of the Roman Empire, which brings to focus the power of the pope. Charlemagne died in 814 A.D.²⁸ His death represented the passing of another horn. Now, five are left.

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

"After the death of Charlemagne, five (5) horns were left, plus the religious leader."

The last of Charlemagne's heirs were deposed and the government fell into several hands. Finally, Pope John XII asked Otto (Otto The Great) to come to Italy and fight against Berengar II. After defeating him, Otto was crowned King of Italy in Pavia in 952 A.D., and Emperor of Rome in 962 A.D. Otto's reign inaugurated the Holy Roman Empire, founded on the principle, "one pope, one emperor." Otto (some history books spell his name "Otho") was credited as being the founder of the Holy Roman Empire. He died in 973 A.D.²⁹ His death represented the passing of another horn. Now, only four are left.

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

“After the death of Otto the Great, four (4) horns were left, plus the religious leader.”

After Otto’s death, the church continued to grow with many clerics in the kingdoms of Germany, Italy, and Burgundy, making up the Holy Roman Empire and held both ecclesiastical and temporal power. The following question began to loom: Which is the supreme ruler, the emperor or the pope?” Other the years this looming question created power struggles between the Papacy and the Supreme Ruler.

In the 1500’s, Charles V rose to power. As it was with emperors before him, he also clashed with the pope. Finally, Pope Clement made peace with him and crowned him Holy Roman Emperor in 1530. In exchange, the pope requested the reestablishment of his family’s rule in Florence. Charles V also restored other papal states to Catholic rule in following years and did more toward restoring the Roman Empire than any other ruler since Charlemagne. Charles abdicated in 1556 and died in 1558.³⁰ His death represented the passing of another horn on the head of the fourth beast, leaving three.

“After the death of Charles V, three (3) horns were left, plus the religious leader.”

After Charles V’s passing, the empire started to erode again and was scattered in the hands of many different nationalities. The Protestants, which started with the protest of Martin Luther in 1517, were on the rise and revolts were everywhere, including the elimination of papal control over the English Catholic Church, by Henry VIII in 1534. The decline of the once great empire had reached an all time low. Even in Italy, Italians were no longer citizens but subjects instead. The pope still had some control and the papal state was still intact.³¹

Early in 1797, Napoleon Bonaparte invaded the Papal States and forced Pope Pius VI to recognize the Cispadane Republic. Bonaparte became Napoleon I, Emperor of France, and in 1805, made himself king of Italy. As it had been with previous rulers, Napoleon clashed with the popes. “On July 5, 1809, one of Napoleon’s generals forced his way into the pope’s residence in Rome and asked Pope Pius VII Chiaramonti to retract a statement reiterating papal supremacy over temporal sovereigns.

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

Pius VII refused and was deported to France the next day.” Later, the Papal States were re-established according to their pre 1796 boundaries and were ruled over by Pius VII, whom Napoleon had released from his second confinement in France in January 1814.³²

There were several more battles, some victories and some losses for Napoleon. However, he was finally defeated for the last time during the Battle of Waterloo. Napoleon abdicated and was confined on the island of St. Helena, where he died on May 5, 1821.³³ His death represented the passing of another horn on the head of the fourth beast in the 7th chapter of Daniel. Now, there are two left.

“After the death of Napoleon I, two (2) horns were left, plus the religious leader.”

In 1861, after the revolutionaries achieved most of their goals, Italy was proclaimed a kingdom and Rome was made it's capitol. In time, the new Italian states brought the whole nation together. Eventually, Italy and other European countries developed economic and political problems. Furthermore, the Russian revolution in 1917 sent a shockwave across Europe, exacerbating the economic problems many of the countries already faced.

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

The war ended and the Italian soldiers were returning home to face the poverty and unemployment waiting on them.³⁴

“In the atmosphere of unrest, a renegade socialist, Benito Mussolini, launched his anti-communist movement, the Fascist party (which took its name from the ancient Roman emblem of the fasces. The fasces symbolized authority and unity). With unquestioned control of his followers, Mussolini came to power. Mussolini ordered his followers to march on Rome in 1922. The king gave way to his show of force and called on Mussolini to form a government. Mussolini gradually transformed Italy into a dictatorship.”³⁵ There was still the ever-present problem of the papacy that Mussolini had to heal. As it was with all of the previous rulers of the once great Roman state, there was a conflict.

“Pius XI Ratti, who saw Fascism as an efficient bulwark against communism, was the pope during most of the fascist period. The Lateran Treaty, negotiated by the Cardinal Gasparri and signed on February 11, 1929, ended the conflict between the Italian state and the papacy. The papacy renounced all claims on former papal territories in exchange for the creation of the independent state of Vatican City.”³⁶ Afterward, Mussolini pursued his grand ambition, and that was to revive the glories of ancient Rome and make the Italians once again a conquering, militaristic people.

His dream, as it was with his predecessors, was never accomplished. After many failures and eventually an alliance with Hitler, Mussolini was captured and shot near Como on April 28, 1945.³⁷ His death represented the passing of another horn on the head of the fourth beast in the 7th chapter of Daniel. Now, only one is left.

"After the death of Mussolini, one (1) horn is left, plus the religious leader."

We do not know who this last horn will be, but we know where to look. He will be the leader of the European Common Market. The bible is very clear in its explanation of the revival of the old Roman Empire, which it calls Babylon the Great. Now, we must go to the book of revelation for more on this subject

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

This beast represents the Roman Empire before any of the men had died that tried to restore it after its fall.

There were nine (9) horns left after the defeat of the Herulians.

There were eight (8) horns left after the defeat of the Vandels.

After the death of Justinian, six (6) horns were left, plus the religious leader.

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

After the death of Charlemagn, five (5) horns were left, plus the religious leader.

After the death of Otto the Great, four (4) horns were left, plus the religious leader.

After the death of Charles V, three (3) horns were left, plus the religious leader.

After the death of Napoleon I, two (2) horns were left, plus the religious leader.

After the death of Mussolini, one (1) horn is left, plus the religious leader.

Chapter III

THE BEAST WITH SEVEN HEADS AND TEN HORNS

The beast represents the kingdom. The seven heads represent the entire gentile rulership from Babylon to Rome. The ten horns represent the ten nations combined to make up the European Common Market”

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

THE BEAST WITH SEVEN HEADS AND TEN HORNS

First, we will go to Revelation 13:1-2. In this chapter, the Apostle John saw only one beast rise up out of the sea (Daniel saw four beasts). (Verse 1) “And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy.” (Verse 2) “And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon (devil) gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority.”

If you look closely at this beast, you will see that he has parts of the four beasts spoken of in the 7th chapter of Daniel. He has the body of a leopard (Greek Empire), the feet of a bear (Mede-Persian Empire), the mouth of a lion (Babylonian Empire), and ten horns (Roman Empire). We will call him a composite beast.

The seven heads on the beast represents the four beasts in Daniel. Babylon (the lion with eagle's wings) had one head, Mede-Persian (the bear) had one head, Greece (the leopard) had four heads, and Rome (the dreadful and terrible beast) had one head. Add them together and you will have seven heads.

Now that we know where the seven heads came from, we must find out where the ten horns came from. Now, these are not the ten horns on the head of the fourth beast in Daniel the 7th chapter. Remember, three of those horns were plucked up by the roots and six of the remaining seven have died, one after the other in their generations. Only one is left. The ten horns make up the European Common Market. There may be some changes (some nations may get out but others will replace them), but in its final state, there will only be ten. This composite beast represents the return of the old Roman Empire and every nation that joins the European Common Market must sign the same treaty. It is called the Treaty of Rome.

Revelation states that upon each of these ten horns, there is a crown. That tells us that each horn is a ruler over his own individual nation. These ten will elect one man to act as supreme ruler over them all. That man will be the tenth and last horn on the head of the fourth beast spoken of in Daniel the 7th Chapter. In brief, these ten kings, presidents, prime ministers, or whatever they call themselves are rulers that will allow themselves to be ruled. In Revelation 13:3, John said, "And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast." The wounded head on this seven-headed beast was Rome.

Rome didn't just die and go away like the three empires before it. Rome kept trying to make a comeback. Each time one of the horns spoken by Daniel rose up, it tried to restore the ancient Roman Empire. From Odoacer, the leader of the Herulians to Mussolini, the leader of the Fascists, they all failed. However, they did enough to keep that wounded Roman head from dying completely. When the last horn arrives, he will revive the Roman Empire under its new name, the European Common Market. Once these ten nations place their power into the hand of this one man, the deadly wound will be healed.

Now, let us skip down to Revelation 13:11-12, where John said (Verse 11) "And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth: and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon." (Verse 12) "And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast whose deadly wound was healed."

First, who is this other beast that has two horns like a lamb and spake as a dragon? This beast does not represent the rising of another kingdom after Rome; it represents the leadership of the revived Roman Empire. Remember that horns represent people. Before the fall of the last Roman emperor, there was no such man claiming to be the supreme religious leader, much less the supreme ruler of the earth. No emperor would have tolerated such a person. After the fall of Rome's last emperor, a religious leader surfaced, claiming authority that surpassed even the emperor.

With this religious leader claiming power and the king or emperor claiming it also, there was conflict until a compromise was made. This compromise produced a spiritual and temporal leader. Now, there are two leaders of the Roman Empire. One pope, and one emperor. Therefore, the two horns represent the two leaders.

The religious leader is the same horn in Daniel 7:8 that had eyes like a man and a mouth speaking great things. If you would go back and read Revelation 13:5, you will see that John said that the seven-headed beast “was given a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies.”

*RELIGIOUS

LEADER*

The beast represents the ten European Common Market nations (beast kingdom), plus the religious and temporal leader."

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

The horn with eyes like a man and a mouth that spoke great things, that was mentioned in the 7th chapter of Daniel, is the religious leader of the beast with seven heads and ten horns.

The last horn on the head of the beast, which was mentioned in the 7th Chapter of Daniel, is the temporal leader of the beast with seven heads and ten horns. He will be the eighth head of this great gentile dynasty, but he will come from among the seven horns.”

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

Where did the temporal leader come from? He is that last horn that was left on the head of the dreadful and terrible beast in the 7th chapter of Daniel. He will do what his predecessors were not able to; he will restore the Roman Empire, which is now called the European Common Market. However, he will have to accept the role as co-leader because, as it was with all the leaders before him, he will be compelled to come to some kind of agreement with that little horn that has eyes like a man and a mouth that speaketh great things.

In brief, the beast with seven heads and ten horns represents the revived Roman Empire. The other beast that had two horns like a lamb but spake as a dragon represents the two leaders of the revived Roman Empire.

When John said, “he spake as a dragon,” he merely means that this beast is speaking things that are contrary to the word of God. The dragon is Satan, the Devil (Revelation 12:9). Remember, Revelation 13:2 says, “...the dragon gave him his power and his seat and great authority,” which means he is going to say only what the dragon wants him to say.

The 13th chapter of Revelation tells us mostly about the revived Roman Empire. We must go to the 17th chapter to get a clearer picture of how the religious part of it will materialize. We'll start at the beginning. Revelation 17:1-3 (Verse 1) “And there came one of the seven angels which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither; I will shew unto thee the judgment of the great whore that sitteth upon many waters:” (Verse 2) “With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.” (Verse 3) “So he carried me away in the spirit into the wilderness; and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet colored beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.”

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

Map of Seven Hills

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

We know that this scarlet colored beast with seven heads and ten horns is the revived Roman Empire, but who is this woman? The angel called her a whore. One might ask, what are those many waters on which she sits? For the answer, see Revelation 17:15 and 18. (Verse 15) “And he saith unto me, “The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.” (Verse 18) “And the woman which thou sawest is that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth.”

Now that we know that the many waters are millions of people of different nationalities and languages and the woman is a great city, let's find the geographical location of the city. See Revelation 17:9 (Verse 9) “And here is the mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth.” Now, check your geography books and you will see that Rome, the capital of Italy, was built (or founded) on seven hills (or mountains) and Vatican City is in Rome.

There are Roman Catholics in almost every nation upon the face of the earth and where there are Catholics, there is obedience to the pope, who resides in Vatican City. Right now, the pope rules through religion, but the time is almost here when he will rule through force of arms. He will have ten nations, which will be headed by one man, to do his bidding for him and they will punish all who refuse to adhere to the Catholic version of Christianity as it was done in the past.

How do we know that they will be at his disposal? Well, the bible says that the woman was sitting (riding) upon the beast. We know that anything that one rides is under some control of the rider. How did this woman (religion) grow to such power? First, by gaining the mind of the common people and then by making deals or forcing concessions out of every emperor or king that rose up after the fall of the ancient Roman Empire, from Justinian I to Mussolini, until she grew to be a power to be reckoned with.

See Revelation 17:10-11. (Verse 10) “And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space.” (Verse 11)

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

“And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition (destruction).”

Who are these seven kings? They are the same seven horns that were left on the head of the fourth beast in the 7th chapter of Daniel, after three had been plucked up by the roots. We named six of them. They were Justinian, Charlemagne, Otto the Great, Charles V, Napoleon, and Benito Mussolini. The reason we can name only six is due to the fact that the European Common Market has just come together. The 7th horn will come to power in the days of these ten nations, accompanied by the pope, who will lead them into war against Russia (Gog & Magog) and finally, against Jesus, at his second coming. So now we can say six are fallen and one is not yet come.

Chapter IV

THE ORIGIN OF THE SEVEN HEADS AND TEN HORNS

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

THE ORIGIN OF THE SEVEN HEADS AND TEN HORNS

Earlier, we said that the temporal leader (king, president, or emperor) was called a beast, also as was the empire. This man-beast is what Revelation 17:11 is referring to. It says, “And the beast that was and is not, even he is the eighth...” One would ask, the eight what? The eighth one to put together and lead this powerful gentile dynasty, Babylon. Why did we say Babylon instead of Rome? Because, it doesn’t matter how many rulers there were, they could only rule over the kingdom that Nebuchadnezzar had already started.

The six men (horns) that we named were not able to put the ancient Roman Empire back together. Therefore, they could not be counted as heads of the world dominating power. But the seventh and last horn will put it back together. That will put him in league with the head of the (1) lion, (2) bear, (3,4,5,6), the four heads of the leopard, and (7) the beast with one head and ten horns. This is because he will have healed the beast whose head was mortally wounded and left to die.

Even though the beast that he will heal will be the revived Roman Empire, it will take as much maneuvering to put it together as it did in the days of Octavian Augustus, the first true Roman Empire. This man-beast is the seventh and last horn left on the head of the head of the fourth beast in Daniel 7:7. In essence, he came from among the seven but he will be the eighth (8) leader of the great gentile dynasty, Babylon. Therefore, he will be justly called the eighth head, the leader of the beast with seven heads and ten horns. Revelation 17:12 says “And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, (the leaders of the ten nations that make up the Common Market) which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast (the man that is called the beast).”

Why did John write that the ten kings had received no kingdom as of yet? The reason is because the European Common Market did not come into existence until after the Second World War. “It was first formed in 1951 as the Coal and Steel Community, which included Belgium, France, the German Federation Republic, Luxembourg, the Netherlands, and of course, Italy. Italy then took the initiative in the agreements leading to the Treaty of Rome of 1957 that set up the six-member European Economic Community (E.E.C.).”

This once six-member community has grown and may fluctuate, but will eventually settle at ten and is now known as the European Common Market. (Rev. 17:14), “These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them; for he is Lord of Lords and King of Kings...” The Lamb is Jesus.

Earlier, we spoke of the great Gentile dynasty and called it Babylon. Why? Because, the bible called it that. See Revelation 17:5 “And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.”

This chapter tells us a lot if we have eyes and the understanding to recognize it. First, it tells us about a church that the Bible calls a whore and the mother of harlots (whores). If this whore is a mother of whores, then we are correct in calling her the MOTHER CHURCH. If you find the religion that calls itself Christian, that produced ninety percent of all of the religions that call themselves Christians; you will know who the whore is and her children, regardless of their denomination.

The main reason this organization is called Babylon the Great is because Babylon was the first kingdom to dominate and rule the world. Even though the other three nations, Medo-Persia, Greece, and Rome, rose to power and took control of the world, they could only rule that which Babylon had ruled already. Thus, the kingdom was Babylon’s and everyone else was ruling over an Empire that had already been established.

Chapter V

SPIRITUAL BLINDNESS OF MAN

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

SPIRITUAL BLINDNESS OF MAN

The movements of the four beasts have been documented in the history books of just about every nation that knows how to use pen and paper. Therefore, why have they gone almost unnoticed? The reason is because the inhabitants of the earth have been blinded through spiritual intoxication.

In order to see how this was done, we will go to Revelation 17:1-4 and have a look at the woman that is riding the beast and a closer look at the golden cup in her hand, full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication. Also, we will see how the inhabitants of the earth were made drunk with the wine that was in the cup. (Verse 1) “And there came one of the seven angels which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither: I will shew unto thee the judgment of the great whore that sitteth upon many waters.” (Verse 2) “With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.” (Verse 3) “So he carried me away in the spirit into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.” (Verse 4) “And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of the abomination and filthiness of her fornication.”

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

"The woman represents the false church; the cup full of wine in her hand represents false doctrine."

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

First, let us see what kind of drunkenness the inhabitants of the earth are suffering from: Isaiah 29:9-16 (Verse 9) “Stay yourselves, and wonder; cry ye out, and cry: they are drunken, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink.” (Verse 10) “For the Lord hath poured out upon you the spirit of deep sleep, and hath closed your eyes: the prophets and your rulers, the seers hath he covered.” (Verse 11) “And the vision of all is become unto you as the words of a book that is sealed, which men deliver to one that is learned, saying Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I cannot; for it is sealed:” (Verse 12) “And the book is delivered to him that is not learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I am not learned.” (Verse 13) “Wherefore the Lord said, Forasmuch as this people draw near me with their mouth, and with their lips do honour me, but have removed their heart far from me, and their fear toward me is taught by the precept of men:” (Verse 14) “Therefore, behold, I will proceed to do a marvelous work among this people, even a marvelous work and a wonder: for the wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their prudent men shall be hid.” (Verse 15) “Woe unto them that seek deep to hide their counsel from the Lord, and their works are in the dark, and they say, Who seeth us? And who knoweth us?” (Verse 16) “Surely your turning of things upside down shall be esteemed as the potter’s clay: for shall the work say of him that made it, He made me not? or shall the thing framed say of him that framed it, He had no understanding?”

These scriptures clearly tell us that the inhabitants of the earth are made drunk through false doctrine, paraphrasing, and personal interpretations of God’s word. Men have turned the Word of God upside down and have removed the true meaning that God intended. In St. Matthew, chapter 15, the scribes and Pharisees asked Jesus why the disciples transgress the tradition of the elders. Jesus said in Matthew 15:9, “But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.”

See St. Matthew 15:1-9. (Verse 1) “Then came to Jesus scribes and Pharisees, which were of Jerusalem, saying,” (Verse 2) “Why do thy disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? For they wash not their hands when they eat bread.” (Verse 3) “But he answered and said unto them, Why do ye also transgress the commandment of God by your tradition?”

(Verse 4) “For God commanded, saying, Honour thy father and mother: and, He that curseth father or mother, let him die the death.” (Verse 5) “But ye say, whosoever shall say to his father or his mother, It is a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me;” (Verse 6) “And honour not his father or his mother, he shall be free. Thus have ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition.” (Verse 7) “Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias (Isaiah) prophesy of you, saying,” (Verse 8) “THIS PEOPLE DRAWETH NIGH UNTO ME WITH THEIR MOUTH, AND HONORETH ME WITH THEIR LIPS; BUT THEIR HEART IS FAR FROM ME.” Make note of the statement Jesus made in verse 9: “BUT IN VAIN THEY DO WORSHIP ME, TEACHING FOR DOCTRINES THE COMMANDMENTS OF MEN.”

Why did the Lord say that the people are worshipping him in vain? He said this because they use the name of Jesus, but every denomination teaches the doctrines that were set forth by the man that founded it, and not by the word of God. If the word of God is not being taught, how can it possibly have any effect on people? Therefore, people are worshipping the name of the Lord, but serving according to the doctrines of men. In doing so, all of their worshipping is for nothing.

Now, let us look at a few examples of just how drunk the inhabitants of the earth have become from drinking the wine (false doctrine) out of that golden cup. First, we will examine some things that are commonly taught. Then, we will show the correct meaning of these things according to the bible, which are in direct opposition to these false teachings.

Chapter VI

RAPTURE

RAPTURE

RAPTURE: Men say that Jesus is going to rapture us up to Heaven where he is, and then they quote I Thessalonians 4:13-17 to try to justify the rapture. (Verse 13) “But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope.” (Verse 14) “For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.” (Verse 15) “For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep.” (Verse 16) “For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first:” (Verse 17) “Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.”

Now, look again, closely, at the scriptures and see what it is really talking about. First, Paul is telling these people not to grieve over the people that died in Christ because they would be raised again, as surely as the virtuous people that are living will be changed. “For the Lord will descend (come down), and we all will be caught up (ascend) together in the clouds to MEET the Lord in the AIR: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.” Be with the Lord where? Now, let us reason together for a while before we look at the scriptures that will tell us exactly where we, and the Lord, will be.

Millions of people have flown in airplanes a great distance above the clouds. Some mountains extend up into, and above, the clouds as well. Even birds fly in the air. Paul made it very clear that Jesus will leave the Heaven (where he is presently dwelling), because descend means to come down, go down, or move from a higher place to a lower place. Paul never said that we will go to heaven, he only said we will meet the Lord in the air. We must meet the Lord in the air in order to fulfill prophecy. See Zachariah the 14th chapter, note verses 3, 4, 5, and 9. (Verse 3) “Then shall the Lord go forth and fight...” (Verse 4) “And his feet shall stand in that day upon the Mount of Olives...” (Verse 5) “The Lord my God shall come, and all the saints with thee.” (Verse 9) “And the Lord shall be king over all the earth.” Now, realizing the fact that the dead and the living are all in one place, the Lord is in another, and it is us who are the saints, how else could we come with him unless we meet him in the air above the earth first?

When Jesus left the earth for the last time, after his resurrection, two men (angels) appeared before the Apostles and told them that he would return in the same way. See Acts 1:10-12. (Verse 10) “And while they looked stedfastly toward heaven as he went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel;” (Verse 11) “Which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? This same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven.” (Verse 12) “Then returned they unto Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is from Jerusalem a Sabbath day’s journey.” He was received out of sight in a cloud; and verse 12 lets us know that they were standing on Mount Olive. Jesus’ feet will land, when he comes, on the same mountain that he stood on, before he left the earth for the last time, almost 2,000 years ago.

The next scripture that is used to try to support the false teaching of going to Heaven is in St. John. See St. John 14:1-3. (Verse 1) “Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.” (Verse 2) “In my Father’s house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.” (Verse 3) “And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.” Look closely at these scriptures, in particular, verses 2 and 3. “I go to prepare a place for you.” (Verse 3) “And if I go, I will come again, and receive you unto myself.”

We know that he went, therefore, he must come again. Now, you are probably thinking, how will we get into this place that Jesus went to prepare for us without going to heaven, where it is? For the answer to this question, we will look into the book of Revelation. See Revelation 21:1-3. (Verse 1) “And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.” Take note of (Verse 2) “And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, PREPARED (I go to a prepare a place for you) as a bride adorned for her husband.” (Verse 3) “And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.”

Sure Jesus said in St. John the 14th chapter that where he was going, we know the way, but he never said we would go there. In fact, he straightly told the people twice that where he is going, they cannot come. See St. John 7:33-34 and St. John 8:21-22. St. John 7 (Verse 33) “Then said Jesus unto them, Yet a little while am I with you, and then I go unto him that sent me.” (Verse 34) “Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come.” St. John 8 (Verse 21) “Then said Jesus again unto them, I go my way, and ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sins: whither I go, ye cannot come.” (Verse 22) “Then said the Jews, Will he kill himself? because he saith, whither I go, ye cannot come.”

Even when Gabriel the angel brought the news to the virgin Mary, he not only told her that she was going to have a son and what to name him, but he also told her that he would be a ruler (king). He also gave the exact location where his throne would be and who it once belonged to. See St. Luke 1:26-33. Note verse 32: “...and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David (David is his father according to the flesh).” (Verse 26) “And in the sixth month: the angel, Gabriel, was sent from God unto a City of Galilee, named Nazareth.” (Verse 27) “To a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin’s name was Mary.” (Verse 28) “And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art highly favored, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou that art among women.” (Verse 29) “And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be.” (Verse 30) “And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favour with God.” (Verse 31) “And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS.” (Verse 32) “He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David.” (Verse 33) “And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever: and of his kingdom there shall be no end.” Who was this David, whose throne God is going to give to Jesus?

David was the second king of Israel; See II Samuel 5:1-5. (Verse 1) “Then came all the tribes of Israel to David unto He’-bron, and spake, saying, Behold, we are thy bone and thy flesh.” (Verse 2) “Also in time past, when Saul was king over us, thou wast he that ledest out and broughtest in Israel: and the LORD said to thee, Thou shalt feed my people Israel, and thou shalt be a captain over Israel.” (Verse 3) “So all the elders of Israel came to the king to He’-bron; and king David made a league with them in He’-bron before the LORD: and they anointed David king over Israel.” (Verse 4) “David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years.” (Verse 5) “In He’-bron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months: and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty and three years over all Israel and Judah.”

Now David wanted to build God a house (Temple), but God sent the Prophet Nathan to tell David that his (David’s) seed after him, which he will raise up and which shall be one of his sons, shall build him (God) a house. See I Chronicles 17:1-17. (Verse 1) “Now it came to pass, as David sat in his house that David said to Nathan the prophet, Lo, I dwell in a house of cedars, but the ark of the covenant of the Lord remaineth under curtains.” (Verse 2) “Then Nathan said unto David, Do all that is in thine heart; for God is with thee.” (Verse 3) “And it came to pass the same night, that the word of God came to Nathan, saying,” (Verse 4) “Go and tell David my servant, Thus saith the Lord, Thou shalt not build me an house to dwell in.” (Verse 5) “For I have not dwelt in an house since the day that I brought up Israel unto this day; but have gone from tent to tent, and from one tabernacle to another.” (Verse 6) “Wheresoever I have walked with all Israel, spake I a word to any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to feed my people, saying, Why have ye not built me an house of cedars?” (Verse 7) “Now therefore thus shalt thou say unto my servant David, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, I took thee from the sheepcote, even from following the sheep, that thou shouldest be ruler over my people Israel.” (Verse 8) “And I have been with thee whithersoever thou hast walked, and have cut off all thine enemies from before thee, and have made thee a name like the name of the great men that are in the earth.” (Verse 9) “Also I will ordain a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, and they shall dwell in their place, and shall be moved no more: neither shall the children of wickedness waste them anymore, as at the beginning,” (Verse 10) “And since the time that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel. Moreover I will subdue all thine enemies. Furthermore I tell thee that the Lord will build thee an house.” (Verse 11) “And it shall come to pass, when thy days be expired that thou must go to be with thy fathers, that I will raise up thy seed after thee, which shall be of thy sons; and I will establish his kingdom.” (Verse 12) “He shall build me an house, and I will establish his throne for ever.” (Verse 13) “I will be his father, and he shall be my son: and I will not take my mercy away from him, as I took it from him that was before thee.” (Verse 14) “But I will settle him in mine house and in my kingdom forever: and his throne shall be established for evermore.” (Verse 15)

“According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak unto David.” (Verse 16) “And David the king came and sat before the Lord and said, Who am I, O Lord God, and what is mine house, that thou hast brought me hitherto?” (Verse 17) “And yet this was a small thing in thine eyes, O God; for thou hast also spoken of thy servant’s house for a great while to come, and hast regarded me according to the estate of a man of high degree, O Lord God.”

Most bible scholars will tell you that this son that God is referring to is Solomon, because Solomon built the first temple. But, there are a few statements made in this scripture that puts this promise that God made to David far beyond Solomon. For example, as previously quoted, I Chronicles 17:12, “...and I will establish his throne FOR EVER.”

Solomon only reigned for forty years (Far shorter than forever). See 1st Chronicles 17:13-14,17. (Verse 13) “I will be his Father and he shall be my Son (never was Solomon called the Son of God):” (Verse 14) “I will settle him in mine house and in mine kingdom for ever: and his Throne shall be established for Evermore, (FOR Evermore is a long, long time).” In verse 17, even

David said, “for thou has also spoken of thy servant’s house for a great while to come, and hast regarded me according to the estate of a man of high degree, O Lord God.”

Now, who is this son of David and Son of God? Who? Paul will tell us in Romans 1:1-4. (Verse 1) “Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, separated unto the gospel of God,” (Verse 2) “(Which he had promised afore by his prophets in the holy scriptures,)” (Verse 3) “Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, which was made of the seed of David according to the flesh,” (Verse 4) “And declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead.”

The prophet Isaiah spoke of some things that the angel, Gabriel, told Mary. See Isaiah 9:6-7. (Verse 6) “For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counselor, the Mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.” (Verse 7) “Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will perform this.” “Unto us a child is born, unto us a Son is Given; of the increase of His government and Peace there shall be NO END (for ever), upon the Throne of David.”

The prophet Jeremiah also spoke of the same thing. See Jeremiah 23:5-6. (Verse 5) “Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth.” (Verse 6) “In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely: and this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.”

The prophet Daniel told us of the coming of Jesus and the location of his kingdom. See Daniel 7:13-14. (Verse 13) “I saw in the night visions, and behold, one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him.” (Verse 14) “And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.” Look closely at verse 13 and 14, “...one like the Son of man (David was a man, therefore, Jesus was the Son of man), came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days (God the father).” (Verse 14) “And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom...” See St. Luke 1:32-33. (Verse 32) “He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David:” (Verse 33) “And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.”

Now skip to the 27th verse of the same chapter of Daniel, to see again where this kingdom will be that was given to the Son of Man (Son of David), and who will be in it with him. Daniel 7:27 says “And the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom UNDER THE WHOLE HEAVEN, shall be given to the people of the SAINTS of the most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him.” Now if the kingdom is under the whole heaven, where else could it be but on the earth?

This kingdom will rule the entire earth for a thousand years, starting after the first resurrection. After the thousand years are over, then will Satan (the Devil) be released out of his prison to try the (flesh and blood) people of that time, just as we are being tried now. When Satan is set free, he will take Gog and Magog (Russia). He will deceive people from all over the earth, gather a great army and surround the Camp of saints to attack them.

We will now see where they had to go to compass the Camp of the Saints. See Revelation 20: 7-9. (Verse 7) “And when the thousand years are expired, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison,” (Verse 8) “And shall go out to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, Gog and Ma’-gog, to gather them together to battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea.” (Verse 9) “And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them.”

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

Note verse 9. “And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the Camp of the Saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down from God (the father) out of heaven, and devoured them.” Now after this come the White Throne Judgment, the Father, and his House with many mansions, New Jerusalem.

If the camp of the Saints will be in heaven, what camp of Saints is this that Satan and his forces will compass upon the earth? Understand one thing, Satan is no dummy. Ezekiel said, “He is wiser than Daniel (the Prophet), and there is no secret that can be hid from him.” If he goes seeking the camp of the saints upon the earth, on the earth is where it will be.

Therefore, let no person convince you that you are going to heaven, even if they quote scripture such as “There will be two people working in the field, one will be taken, and the other will be left, and two in a grinding mill and one will be taken and the other left.” The scripture is true, but where will that one be taken? To meet the Lord in the air and they all will come back to earth.

Let no one tell you that there are some people in heaven that have already died because it is simply not true. If people went to heaven or hell upon their death, whether it is five minutes after or a trip through purgatory first, who will there be left to raise from the dead when the time comes for the first or last resurrection? If everyone went to their perspective places upon death, who will stand in judgment on Judgment Day? Also, if the people that have died in Christ are now flying around in heaven, and the bad people that have died are now burning in hell, who are these people that John wrote about in Revelation 20:13 when he said, “The sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to his works?”

People will read to you what Jesus said to the thief on the cross in St. Luke 23:43. “And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, to-day shalt thou be with me in paradise.” If Jesus was telling the thief that he was going to be with him in paradise that very day, why then did Jesus forbid Mary to touch him in St. John 20:17? “Jesus saith unto her, Touch me not; for I am NOT YET ascended to my Father: but go and tell my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend to my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God.”

This was three days after he had spoke with the thief on the cross. Jesus said with his own mouth in St. Matthew 12:40 that “For as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale’s belly; so shall the Son of man be three days and nights in the heart of the earth.” IF Jesus did not go to paradise until three days later, the thief must have went on ahead of him. That is not possible. Jesus was PROMISING the thief, THAT DAY, that he will be with him (Jesus) in paradise later on.

How do I know what Jesus meant? See St. John 6:39-40. (Verse 39) “And this is the Father’s will which hath sent me, that all of which he (the father) hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the LAST day.” (Verse 40) “And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the LAST day.”

Look. David, a man after God’s own heart, is still dead! See Acts 2:29-34. (Verse 29) “Men and brethren, let me freely speak unto you of the patriarch David, that he is both DEAD and BURIED, and his sepulcher is with us unto this day.” (Verse 30) “Therefore being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne;” (Verse 31) “He seeing this before spake of the resurrection of Christ, that his soul was not left in hell, neither his flesh did see corruption.” (Verse 32) “This Jesus hath God raised up, whereof we all are witnesses.” (Verse 33) “Therefore, being by right hand of God exalted, and having received of the Father the promise of the Holy Ghost, he hath shed forth this, which ye now see and hear.” (Verse 34) “FOR DAVID IS NOT ASCENDED INTO THE HEAVENS: but he saith himself, The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand,”

Next, go to Hebrew the 11th chapter and read about all of the great and righteous people that labored and suffered persecution and death for the name of the Lord. They all had faith and died in it, but had not received the promise; (Verse 39) “And these all having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise.” (Verse 40) “God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us should NOT be made perfect.”

I would like to ask one question. Where is Paradise? No matter how long I look at the word, it will not change into the word Heaven. If that thief is in heaven, what was it he had so special that he could repent on the last day of his life and be made perfect, while Paul, Peter, David, all the people named and spoken of in Hebrews the 11th chapter, and all of the rest of the prophets and apostles have to wait until the first resurrection? One must be drunk to believe that this man is in heaven, because this contradicts all scriptures from Genesis to Revelation.

Neither let anyone deceive you by quoting the parable of Lazarus and the rich man to make you believe that the dead are in heaven or hell. The Lord said that the beggar, Lazarus, was in Abraham’s bosom. Remember the 11th chapter of Hebrew. It tells us that Abraham is among those that died in faith, but would not be made perfect before us. Now, if Abraham is dead and no one will be raised before the first resurrection, this can only be speaking of the future. Therefore, both Lazarus and the rich man are dead. That scripture was a parable. Like most of the other parables, it is speaking of the future. Remember what Paul said in I Thessalonians the 4th chapter, that the Lord shall descend and then the dead shall be raised and the living shall be changed. This lets us know that no one will be taken off this earth or out of it, even to meet the Lord in the air, until he descends (starts to come down).

Now let us see when he will come. See St. Matthew 24:27-31. (Verse 27) “For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.” (Verse 28) “For wheresoever the carcase is, there will the eagles be gathered together.” (Verse 29) “Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken.” (Verse

30) “And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven; and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.” (Verse 31) “And he shall send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.” Note verse 29 and 30. (Verse 29) “Immediately after the tribulation of those days...” (Verse 30) “And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven...and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds.”

Verse 31 tells us, at that time, will he send his angels to gather his elect (At the sound of a great trumpet). The Lord cannot come before the Great Tribulation and we cannot be raised or changed before the coming of the Lord because prophecy cannot be broken. Therefore, no one is in heaven that was born of a woman, except Jesus, and no one will be raptured up into heaven. The best we can do is meet the Lord Jesus in the air and come back to earth with him, where he will sit on the throne of his earthly father, David.

If you are still determined to go to heaven, then answer one question. Which one do you plan to go to? Paul speaks of three (3) heavens. He speaks of Jesus being caught up to the third Heaven. See II Corinthians 12:1-2. (Verse 1) “It is not expedient for me doubtless to glory. I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.” (Verse 2) “I knew a man in Christ above fourteen years ago, (whether in body, I cannot tell; God knoweth;) such an one caught up to the third heaven.” The Bible tells you where they are, but this is a good project for you. Read your Bible and find them. If anyone says they know where they are, ask them to show them to you in the Bible.

Chapter VII

SAVED

SAVED

SAVED: This is another dose of that wine. Some of the most common statements made by people who say they are Christians are: “I am saved” Or “Since I’ve been saved” or “I know I am saved.” They try to use certain scriptures in the bible such as Romans 10:9 to justify their belief, which says, “That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.”

Let us go and look closely at this scripture and see if it says that we are saved NOW. See Romans 10:9-17. (Verse 9) “That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.” (Verse 10) “For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.” (Verse 11) “For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.” (Verse 12) “For there is no difference between the Jew and Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him.” (Verse 13) “For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.” (Verse 14) “How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? And show shall they hear without a preacher?” (Verse 15) “And how shall they preach, except they be sent? As it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!” (Verse 16) “But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias (Isaiah) saith, Lord who hath believed our report?” (Verse 17) “So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.”

We will analyze a few of the verses and take note of the wording. In verse 9, Paul said, “...shalt be saved.” Shalt be is a future tense. Verse 13 speaks about people that have not believed, or even heard of Christ. It also lets us know that we must have a preacher, and verse 14 tells us he must be sent. Verse 16 tells us that they have not all obeyed the gospel. First, how do you know that your preacher was sent by God? See II Corinthians 11:13-15. (Verse 13) “For such are fake apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.” (Verse 14) “And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light.” (Verse 15) “Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.” Here we see that Satan (the Devil) has ministers, and they present themselves to you as ministers of righteousness. These ministers are not sent by God, however they continue to use the name of Christ.

See St. Matthew 24:3-5. (Verse 3) “And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? And what shall be the sign of thy coming?, and of the end of the world?” (Verse 4) “And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you.” (Verse 5) “For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.” Jesus warned his apostles about the coming of people who will use the name of Christ to push another agenda. After all, many ministers will agree that Jesus is the Christ, but afterward deceive the people with false doctrine.

See Revelation 2:12-15. (Verse 12) “And to the angel of the church in Pergamos write; These things saith he which hath the sharp sword with two edges;” (Verse 13) “I know thy works and where thou dwellest, even where Satan’s seat is: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Antipas was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where Satan dwelleth.” (Verse 14) “But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balac to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication.” (Verse 15) “So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitanes, which thing I hate.”

Here are people that hold fast to the name of Jesus, and have not denied his faith, but the Lord also said that Satan’s seat is there. Plus, he pointed out that they hold the doctrine of Balaam (which represent all false doctrine), which corrupts all that believe it. Also found among these people is the doctrine of the Nicolaitanes. The Nicolaitanes are men whom the Lord has not sent, but they have deceived us into thinking that they are the priests (ministers) of God. They are the heads of the Mother Church, whom the Lord said he hates. This mother has daughters, and they are called Protestants. What makes them daughters? Their doctrine, though the methods are different, the teachings are the same. They teach, among other things, that you are saved just by confessing the name of Christ.

Let us look at some of the writings of some preachers that we know were sent from God and see what they said about being saved. See I Corinthians 9:24-27. (Verse 24) "Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? So run, that ye may obtain." (Verse 25) "And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible." (Verse 26) "I therefore so run, not as uncertainly; so fight I, not as one that beateth the air:" (Verse 27) "But I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway." Pay attention to what Paul is saying, "So run that you may obtain." He is also letting you know that he can become a castaway (lost) even after he preached to many.

See Philippians 3:8-14. (Verse 8) "Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ," (Verse 9) "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of god by faith:" (Verse 10) "That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death;" (Verse 11) "If by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead." (Verse 12) "Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus." (Verse 13) "Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before," (Verse 14) "I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus."

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

Look at some of the statements Paul is making. “If by any means I MIGHT attain unto the resurrection,” “I press TOWARD the mark for the prize of the high calling.” If Paul were saved, he would have said, “I have obtained, I have the prize, I have apprehended.” Again, in Hebrews 10:36, Paul said, “For ye have need of patience, that, after you have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise.” If you are saved then you have already received the promise – what else is there to be patient for?

Now let us see who the Lord said will be saved. St. Matthew 10:22. “And ye shall be hated of all men for my name’s sake: but he that endureth to the END shall be saved.”

See Revelation 2:17, “He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches; To him that OVERCOMETH will I give to eat of hidden manna, and will give to him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it.” See Revelation 3:5, “He that OVERCOMETH, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.” See Revelation 20:15, “And whosoever was not found written in the Book of Life was cast into the Lake of Fire.” Consider what you have just read, what Paul said, and also what Jesus said. Consider the Book of Life. If your name is written in it, God put it there.

See Malachi 3:16-18. (Verse 16) “Then they that feared the LORD spake often one to another: and the LORD hearkened, and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the LORD, and that thought upon his name.” (Verse 17) “And they shall be mine, saith the Lord of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels; and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him.” (Verse 18) “Then shall ye return, and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him that serveth God and him that serveth him not.” This scripture tells you that God records names in a book (of remembrance), and said they shall be his. See Exodus 32:32-33. (Verse 32) “Yet now, if thou wilt forgive their sin-; and if not, blot me, I pray thee, out of thy book which thou hast written.” (Verse 33) “And the Lord said unto Moses, Whosoever hath sinned against me, him will I blot out of my book.”

Now consider what the Lord told Moses. Just as God recorded your name, he can erase it. No one knows if he or she is saved, therefore follow Paul’s advice and run so that you might obtain the prize. In St. Matthew 7:21, Jesus said, “Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord shall enter into the kingdom of heaven;” (“...New Jerusalem, coming down from God out of the heaven...,” Revelation 21:1-2), But he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.”

Chapter VIII

BORN AGAIN

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

BORN AGAIN

BORN AGAIN: What does born again mean? Most people say you are born again when you accept Christ into your life. Others say when you put away the sins of the world. Both of these sayings are a good start, but a start only. Even if you live a perfect life, and adhere to all the laws of God, it is still only a start.

What most people call being born again is actually what the bible calls repenting. See Acts 2:37-38. (Verse 37) “Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do?” (Verse 38) “Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.” When those people realized, through Peter’s teaching, that Jesus’ death and resurrection had already been prophesied, they were pricked in the heart and asked Peter and the rest of the Apostles: “Men and brethren what shall we do?” Peter told them to repent and be baptized in the name of Jesus. He made no mention of being born again.

Search the scriptures. Can you find one Apostle that said he was born again? No, you can’t. Neither can you find any place where they told someone that he or she had been born again. In I John the 3rd chapter, John said in verse 9, “Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him: and he CANNOT sin, because he is born of God.” As long as you are flesh and blood, you can sin. Read Romans 7:7-25 and see how Paul talks about the struggle he had trying to avoid committing sin, and how he failed sometimes. (Verse 7) “What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Nay, I had not known sin, but by the law: for I had not known lust, except the law had said thou shalt not covet.” (Verse 8) “But sin, taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For without the law, sin was dead.” (Verse 9) “For I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.” (Verse 10) “And the commandment, which was ordained to life, I found to be unto death.” (Verse 11) “For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me.” (Verse 12) “Wherefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good.” (Verse 13) “Was then that which is good made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful.” (Verse 14) “For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, sold under sin.” (Verse 15) “For that which I do I allow not: for what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that I do.” (Verse 16) “If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law that it is good.” (Verse 17) “Now then it is no more that I do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.” (Verse 18) “For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not.” (Verse 19) “For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do.” (Verse 20) “Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me,” (Verse 21) “I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me.” (Verse 22) “For I delight in the law of God after the inward man.” (Verse 23) “But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members.” (Verse 24) “O wretched man that I am! Who shall deliver me from the body of this death?” (Verse 25) “I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh, the law of sin.”

In verse 7, Paul lets us know that he would not have known what sin was if the law (commandments) had not identified it. In verse 8, he is also letting us know that after the commandments had identified sin, he realized that he had all kinds of uncleanness (concupiscence). For without the law, sin was dead. Why was sin dead without the law? Because I John 3:4 tells us, “Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law.” This is why Paul said in Romans 7:7 that he had not known lust, except that the law had said, “Thou shalt not covet.”

Just as you cannot get a ticket for running a stop sign if it is not posted, you cannot break a law that does not exist. That is why Paul said when the commandments came, sin revived and he died. Paul is simply saying that, when the commandments identified to him what wrong was, he stopped doing wrong. How could a thief know that he is a thief if there is nothing written or said to identify the acts of stealing? When Paul stopped doing wrong, he became a new man, a righteous man, and the old unrighteous Paul no longer existed. He had died. However, the old sinful man doesn't die easy, nor does he stay dead without trying to return. This is why Paul wrote in Romans 7:15-21 that sometimes, he found himself doing things that he had no intentions of doing and also that sometimes, he set out to do right, but ended up doing evil instead. This is when Paul realized that the old Paul was still present and that he came with his flesh and blood body, and he refused to go without a fight.

Try and picture in your mind a house with an evil man living in it. Along comes a righteous man who purchases the house, but the evil man refuses to leave. Therefore, the righteous man thinks he will go in and throw the evil man out. When he enters however, he finds that the evil man has many weapons. Now, it becomes a struggle of endurance (that's what Jesus said in St. Matthew 24:13, "But he that shall endure to the end, the same shall be saved.") You are the house and the struggle is between the righteousness of God and the evil of the flesh, trying to see who will master your mind and control your body. The righteous commandment of God says, "Thou shalt not commit adultery," but the lust of the flesh says, "Go ahead...who will know...you're only human."

The Apostle Paul was a man of great wisdom and understanding. Therefore, he recognized that as long as he had this flesh and blood body, he was in danger and with this realization, he wrote in Romans 7:24, "O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death?" Paul was just one of many men of wisdom and understanding. Some came before him and some came after him. Even in this day however, the true servants of God all realize the same thing that Paul did in the 7th chapter of Romans. Therefore, we all know that the only way to be out of danger is to be born again, and when you are born again, you are not flesh and blood.

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

Now, let's go to St. John 3:1-8 and see what born again really means. (Verse 1) "There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nic-o-de'-mus, a ruler of the Jews:" (Verse 2) "The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him." (Verse 3) "Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God." (Verse 4) "Nic-o-de'-mus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?" (Verse 5) "Jesus answered, Verily, Verily I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God." (Verse 6) "That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit." (Verse 7) "Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again." (Verse 8) "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit."

When Jesus told Nicodemus that one must be born again to see the Kingdom of God, Nicodemus asked a totally reasonable question. (Verse 4) "How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?" In verse 5, Jesus explained further and said, "Except a man be born of the water and the Spirit, he cannot enter into the Kingdom of God." This born of the spirit is not talking about a change of mind only, but a physical change as well. Why? Because Jesus spoke of two different types of births in verse 6. "That which is born of the flesh is FLESH." Everyone that was born of a woman has a flesh and blood body. No matter how intelligent we become, how careful we are about the food we eat, and how much exercise we get, this body still deteriorates and we get old, wrinkled, gray haired, and eventually die. It doesn't matter how holy we think we are and how much power we say we have in the Holy Ghost, the course of this corruptible body is not altered. We are born of the flesh and if we don't live until the coming of the lord, we will die.

Even if we live until his coming, we must be changed before we can enter into the Kingdom of God. Jesus also said in this same verse, “That which is born of the Spirit IS SPIRIT.” For one to be born of the Spirit, he must be born into the God family and have the same type of body that God has. In Isaiah 31:3, when God warned Israel about trusting in the Egyptians and their horses, he clearly made a separation between flesh beings and spirit beings. He told them, “Now the Egyptians are men, and not God; and their horses are flesh, and not spirit.” Spirit beings (God and the angels) live forever, but flesh (man and the animals) does not. To prove this point, let’s see what happened to Jesus so that he could die for our sins.

Hebrews 2:9-16: (Verse 9) “But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honor; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man.” (Verse 10) “For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings.” (Verse 11) “For both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified are all of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren.” (Verse 12) “Saying, I will declare thy name unto my brethren, in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee.” (Verse 13) “And again, I will put my trust in him. And again, Behold I and the children which God hath given me.” (Verse 14) “Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is the devil,” (Verse 15) “And deliver them who through fear of death were all lifetime subject to bondage.” (Verse 16) “For verily he took not on him the nature of angels; but he took on him the seed of Abraham.”

In verse 9, “We see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the Angels for the suffering of death.” How was he made lower? Verse 14 tells us that just as the children (man) were flesh and blood, he became the same as they. Verse 16 tells us that Jesus did not take on the nature of Angels (because angels, like God, cannot die), but he took upon him the seed of Abraham (because Abraham was a man and man can die).

There is something else that one can do if he has been born of the Spirit (born again) and no matter how many times we have humbly requested of those that say they are born again, they still have not performed it. That is to become invisible. Now, let us go to St. John 3:8 and see what Jesus said. "The wind bloweth where it listeth (will), and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit." The word "everyone" is absolute, meaning that it covers all. So, the next time anyone tells you that he or she has been born again, ask him or her to become invisible and walk past you without being seen. They should be able to go and come past you without your ever knowing it. They should be just like the Lord. Let us look at what Job said about the Lord in Job 9:11. "Lo, he goeth by me, and I see him not: he passeth on also, but I perceive him not (just like the wind)." Now, let us reason together. Why is the term born again used anyway? The answer is because you have been born once already into the family of man with a flesh and blood body. The only way to get into the family of God is that you be born into it. GOD is a Spirit; therefore, you must be born of the Spirit. Jesus is the one that created man and he is the one that said in Genesis, "Let everything, be it plant, beast, bird or man, bring forth seed after its kind; whose seed is within itself." Therefore, Jesus knows that we must be born again. After he and his father's kind. That is why Jesus said, "that which is born of the flesh IS FLESH (ONCE); and that which is born of the spirit IS SPIRIT (AGAIN)."

Although it should not be necessary, we will go to I Corinthians and have a look at these two very different bodies. I Corinthians 15:35-54, (Verse 35) "But some man will say, How are the dead raised up? And with what body do they come?" (Verse 36) "Thou fool, that which thou sowest is not quickened, except it die:" (Verse 37) "And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain:" (Verse 38) "But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body." (Verse 39) "All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds." (Verse 40) "There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another." (Verse 41) "There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory.” (Verse 42) “So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption.” (Verse 43) “It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power.” (Verse 44) “It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.” (Verse 45) “And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit.” (Verse 46) “Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual.” (Verse 47) “The first man is of the earth, earthy: the second man is the Lord from heaven.” (Verse 48) “As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.” (Verse 49) “And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.” (Verse 50) “Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.” (Verse 51) “Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed.” (Verse 52) “In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.” (Verse 53) “For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.” (Verse 54) “So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.”

We can imagine what you are thinking when you read this scripture. “Hey, wait a minute...this is not talking about being born again, it is talking about the resurrection!” Yes, we are talking about the resurrection because at that time, and not before, will the sons and daughters of man become children of God and, in the true sense, be born again.

Now, let us examine this scripture. In verse 35, the question “what kind of bodies will people have when they are raised from the dead?” is asked. Paul first let us know in verse 36, that a seed cannot live (be quickened) except it die first (or be changed). Either way you look at it, it cannot remain the same. That is why, in verse 37, he tells us that the body that we have now is not the same type of body we shall have after the resurrection, but this body only bares grain and the new body will be very different. Verse 38 lets us know that God will make this new body at his pleasure, but it will be made from this old body. In verses 39-40, Paul proceeded to show the differences in certain bodies and that all flesh is not the same.

The most important separation he made was the difference between celestial bodies and terrestrial bodies. The glory of the one is not the same as the other. Celestial means heavenly and terrestrial means earthly. The celestial body shines like brightness of the firmament (heaven). Daniel, in Daniel 12:2-3, spoke of that same brightness when he wrote about the resurrection. Also, in Exodus 34:27-35, when Moses was in Mount Sinai getting the commandments from God, he began to shine. Just from being in the presence of a being with a spiritual body for forty days made a change in Moses' appearance. In fact, Moses' face shone so much that all of the people of Israel were afraid to come near him and he had to wear a veil over his face while he talked to them. That which happened to Moses should let us know that there is a great difference between the celestial (heavenly) and terrestrial (earthly) bodies.

Now, lets go back to I Corinthians 15:43-45. Paul makes more comparisons and then goes on to show us even greater differences. This flesh and blood body is sown in corruption (deterioration) and it is raised in incorruption. (Verse 43) "It is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory; it is sown in weakness; and raised in power." In verse 44, he tells us that there is a natural body and there is a spiritual body. (Verse 44) "It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body." (Verse 45) "And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit." In verse 45, Paul went all the way back to the beginning to make sure we understood the difference of the two bodies when he said, "The first man Adam was made a living soul." See Genesis 2:7, "And the Lord God formed man out of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul." Now, pay attention to what is written in Genesis and I Corinthians. Neither scripture said that God put a soul inside man. They are telling you that man himself is the soul.

Here in the 45th verse, Paul is letting you know that Adam was the first of his kind. And it is also letting you know that Jesus is the first of his kind because he is the first to die out of the family of man and be raised into the God family. See Colossians 1:18, "And he (Jesus) is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, THE FIRSTBORN FROM THE DEAD..." See St. John 1:13, "Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God." See I Corinthians 15:45, "the last Adam was made a quickening spirit." The last Adam is Jesus. In verse 46, Paul let us know that the natural (flesh and blood) body was first, and then afterward comes the spiritual (spirit body). In verse 47, Paul tells us that the second Adam is the Lord from Heaven. Now to highlight verse 48, it is quoting what Jesus said to Nicodemus. "That which is born of the flesh IS FLESH, and that which is born of the spirit IS SPIRIT." We are now bearing the image of our natural father, this flesh and blood body, but at the resurrection we will bear the image of our spiritual father. In verse 50, Paul is saying the same thing that Jesus said to Nicodemus, "flesh and blood cannot inherit the Kingdom of God." Jesus put it another way however, "Verily, verily, I say unto thee, except a man be born again, he cannot see the Kingdom of God."

Now, let us back up to I Corinthians 15:1-8. (Verse 1) "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand;" (Verse 2) "By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain." (Verse 3) "For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures;" (Verse 4) "And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:" (Verse 5) "And that he was seen of Ce'-phas, then of the twelve." (Verse 6) "After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep." (Verse 7) "After that, he was seen of James; then of all the apostles." (Verse 8) "And last of all he was seen of me also, as of one born out of due time."

Paul is telling these people, among other things, how the Apostles and a great number of people had seen Jesus after his resurrection from the dead. But in verse 8 however, he said, "Last of all he was seen of me also, as of one born out of due time." When Paul saw Jesus, he saw him in his spiritual form and his body was spirit. To Paul, he looked like one born before the time. What do we mean by born before the time? The scriptures tell us "To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under heaven" (Ecclesiastes 3:1-8). Therefore, if anyone other than Jesus has been born again at this time, they are born before the time appointed for it, which is at the resurrection.

Now we will see at what time will the children of man be born into the God family (be born again) and become the true children of God. See St. Luke 20:27-36. (Verse 27) "Then came to him certain of the Sad'du-ceeds, which deny that there is any resurrection; and they asked him," (Verse 28) "Saying, Master, Moses wrote unto us, If any man's brother die, having a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother." (Verse 29) "There were therefore seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and died without children." (Verse 30) "And the second took her to wife, and he died childless." (Verse 31) "And the third took her, and in like manner the seven also; and they left no children, and died." (Verse 32) "Last of all the woman died also." (Verse 33) "Therefore in the resurrection whose wife of them is she? For seven had her to wife." (Verse 34) "And Jesus answering said unto them, The children of this world marry, and are given in marriage:" (Verse 35) "But they which shall be accounted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage:" (Verse 36) "Neither can they die any more: for they are equal unto the angels; and are the children of God, being the children of the resurrection."

This is the time when the Sadducees were asking Jesus a question about the resurrection, thinking they could trap him because they did not believe in the resurrection. Our chief concern is verse 34, "The children of this world marry, and are given in marriage:" (Verse 35) "But they which shall be accounted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage:" (Verse 36) "Neither can they die any more: for they are equal unto the angels; and are the children of God, BEING THE CHILDREN OF THE RESURRECTION." When we become the true children of God, we will no longer be flesh and blood beings, but spirit beings. Then you can truly say, "I have been born again," because you will have a body just like God the father, Jesus, and the angels. The Apostle Paul knew that this change had to come and he made it clear in Philippians 3:20-21. (Verse 20) "For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ:" (Verse 21) "Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body..." The prophet Job knew also that this body must be changed. This is why he said in Job 14:14 "If a man die, shall he live again? All the days of my appointed time will I wait, till my change come." Both Paul and Job knew that they had to be born into the family of God, because they were flesh, and God is spirit. The rebirth constitutes a change. I will repeat the scripture St. John 3:6, "That which is born of the flesh IS FLESH (born once); and that which is born of the spirit IS SPIRIT (born again).

Chapter IX

THE DANGER OF NOT PROVING ALL DOCTRINE

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

THE DANGER OF NOT PROVING ALL DOCTRINE

When people are told that they ARE NOT born again, saved, or going to heaven, they become offended and try to defend their brand of doctrine. Many times, they totally close their minds to everything else that has been said, or even read, out of the Holy Bible. We are not trying to offend anyone. We are only asking you to investigate those things that you are confessing. If you believe the wrong thing, it may well poison you. Case in point: Adam and Eve ate of the tree of knowledge of good and evil after God told them not to, and because of this, man has been dying ever since. The fruit of that tree was poison. Be wise and learn from Adam and Eve's mistake. Experience is not always the best teacher because some experiences are fatal. God is merciful, therefore he had his desires and intentions written by his apostles and prophets, that man may know how to serve and please him. Read his word for yourself and if anyone tells you what God said, ask then to show it to you in the bible. "Line upon line and precept upon precept."

Adam and Eve lost their lives and brought death upon us all by listening to Satan and by failing to prove what he was saying by the word of God. Don't make the same mistake because the first death is temporary, but the second death is permanent. Be sober and stop drinking the wine out of that golden cup from the hand of that woman in the 17th chapter of Revelation. For out of that cup comes Easter, Christmas, Good Friday, the rejection of God's commandments, his Sabbath days, and the rejection of all that is holy.

I Corinthians the 10th chapter tells us that Christ was the God of the Old Testament. He was the one that was with Israel, parted the Red Sea, and brought them out of the land of Egypt. See I Corinthians 10:1-4, (Verse 1) "Moreover, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea;" (Verse 2) "And were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea;" (Verse 3) "And did all eat the same spiritual meat;" (Verse 4) "And did all drink the same spiritual drink: for they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them: and that Rock was Christ."

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

These scriptures tell us that Christ was the one that we with Moses and Israel. Let's read verse 4 again, "...for they drank of that spiritual rock that followed them: and that Rock was Christ." In St. John 1:18, John says that no man has seen God at any time, but in Exodus 24:9-11, it is written that 74 people say him. In Exodus 33:12-20 and 34:1-8, it also shows that Moses saw the back of God. Now if John says no one has seen God at any time, who was it that Moses and the elders saw? Moses and the elders say Jesus. Read what Jesus himself said in St. John 5:37. "And the Father himself, which hath sent me, hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his shape."

Yes, it was Jesus who wrote the commandments on the stone tablets for Moses, two times. IT was Jesus that led Israel through the wilderness for 40 years. It was Jesus that split the Red Sea. It was Jesus that sent all the prophets and it was Jesus that said he will sit on the throne of David, which is upon the Earth. Now ask yourself, why would he come in the flesh and reverse virtually everything that he had written and reject his own commandments that he wrote twice?

No, he did not reverse anything that the prophets said, nor did he reject his laws. When he makes his new covenant, he will use the same old laws (Jeremiah 31:31-34, Hebrews 8:8-12). The old covenant is no more but the law is forever. So, if Jesus did not reverse or reject his written word, where did this doctrine of change and reversal come from? It came out of that cup in the woman's hand. Just as Adam died from eating of the forbidden tree, so will we die from drinking the wine out of the cup because we will be too drunk to recognize the words of life and will not be prepared when the Master comes.

The Apostle Paul wrote of spiritual blindness in II Corinthians 4:3-4. (Verse 3) "But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost:" (Verse 4) "In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them." Paul lets us know that many people are blinded by the god of this world, which is Satan the Devil.

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

This blindness is like a covering or a veil thrown over your face. It cuts off the vision. This is why the Lord said in Isaiah 25:7-8, (Verse 7) “And he will destroy in this mountain the face of the covering cast over all people, and the veil that is spread over all nations.” At what time will the Lord destroy this covering? At his coming. He said in verse 8, “He will swallow up death in victory; and the Lord God will wipe away tears from off all faces; and the rebuke of his people shall he take away from off all the earth: for the Lord hath spoken it.” I Corinthians 15:51-54 says that this will take place at the first resurrection. Revelation 7:15-17 also says that this will happen after the Lord has returned, “and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.”

Now we know why the movements of these four great beasts have gone almost unnoticed by the inhabitants of the earth. Most of us have been drunk off of the wine that is in the golden cup, which is in the hand of the woman, and that wine represents false doctrine.

Chapter X

THE SEPARATING OF THE SONS OF NOAH

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

THE SEPARATING OF THE SONS OF NOAH

These four great world-ruling powers, the Babylonian, Medo-Persian, Greek, and Roman Empires were all Gentiles. Gentiles are the children of Japheth. Most people say that if you are not a Jew, you are a Gentile. That saying could not be further from the truth. Only the children of Judah, Jacob's fourth son, are Jews. Jacob, whose name was changed to Israel, had eleven other sons and none of them were Jews. Just as the children of Judah were called Jews after the name of their father Judah, the children of Jacob's eleven other sons were named after their fathers. If they came from Dan, they were called Danites. If they came from Benjamin, they were called Benjamites. If they came from Levi, they were called Levites. And so were they all named according to their fathers. All twelve brothers were the sons of Jacob and therefore, they were all Israelites.

Now Jacob, whose name was changed to Israel, came out of the lineage of Noah's son Shem. Noah had two other sons, Ham and Japheth. Therefore, if you are not a Jew, you can still be a Shemetic. If you are not Shemetic, you are either Hametic (the descendants of Ham) or Gentile (the descendants of Japheth). But only a Jew can be a Jew and only a Gentile can be a Gentile.

See Genesis 10:1-32. (Verse 1) "Now these are the generations of the sons of Noah, Shem, Ham and Ja'pheth: and unto them were sons born after the flood." (Verse 2) "The sons of Ja'pheth; Go-'mer, and Ma'-gog and Ma'-dai, and Ja'-van and Tu'-bal, and Me'-shech, and Ti'-ras." (Verse 3) "And the sons of Gomar; Ashkenaz, Riphath, and Togarmah." (Verse 4) "And the sons of Javan; Elishah, and Tarshish, Kittim, and Dodanim. (Verse 5) "by these were the isles of the Gentiles divided in their lands; every one after his tongue, after their families, in their nations."

(Verse 6) "And the sons of Ham; Cush, and Miz'-ra-im and Phut, and Canaan." (Verse 7) "And the sons of Cush; Se'-ba, and Hav'-i-lah, and Sab'-tah, and Ra'-a-amh, and Sab'-the-chah: and the sons of Ra'-a-mah; She'-ba, and De'-dan." (Verse 8) "And Cush begat Nimrod: he began to be a mighty one in the earth.” (Verse 9) “He was a mighty hunter before the Lord: wherefore it is said, Even as Nimrod the mighty hunter before the Lord.” (Verse 10) “And the beginning of his kingdom was Babel, and E’-rech, and Ac’-cad, and Cal’-neh, in the land of Shi’-nar.” (Verse 11) “Out of that land went forth Ass’-ur, and builded Nine’-e-veh, and the city Re’-ho-both, and Ca’-lah.” (Verse 12) “And Re’-sen between Nin’-ve-veh and Ca’-lah: the same is a great city.” (Verse 13) “And Miz’-ra-im begat Lu’-dim, and An’-a-nim, and Le’-ha-bim, and Haph’-tu-him.” (Verse 14) “And Path-ru’-sim, and Cas-lu’-him, (out of whom came Phil’-is-tim,) and Caph’-to-rim. (Verse 15) “And Ca’-na-an begat Si’-don his first born, and Heth,” (Verse 16) “And the Jeb’-u-site, and the Am’-o-rite, and the Gir’-ga-site,” (Verse 17) “And the Hi’-vite, and the Ar’-kite, and the Si’-nite,” (Verse 18) “And the Ar’-vad-ite, and the Zem’-a-rite, and the Ham’-a-thite: and afterward were the families of the Ca’-na-an-ites spread about.” (Verse 19) “And the border of the Ca’-na-an-ites was from Si’-don, as thou comest to Ge’-rar, unto Ga’-za; as thou goest, unto Sod’-om, and Go-mor’-rah, and Ad’-mah, and Ze’-bo’-im, even unto La’-sha.” (Verse 20) “These are the sons of Ham, after their families, after their tongues, in their countries, and in their nations.” (Verse 21) “Unto Shem also, the father of all the children of E’-ber, the brother of Ja’-pheth the elder, even to him were children born.” (Verse 22) “The children of Shem; E’-lam, and Assh’-ur, and Ar-phaz’-ad, and Lud, and A’-ram.” (Verse 23) “And the children of A’-ram; Uz, and Hul, and Ge’-ther, and Mash.” (Verse 24) “And Ar’-phax’-ad begat Sa’-lah; and Sa’-lah begat E’-ber.” (Verse 25) “And unto E’-ber were born two sons: the name of one was Pe’-leg; for in his days was the earth divided; and his brother’s name was Jok’-tan.” (Verse 26) “And Jok’-tan begat Al-mo’-dad, and She’-leph, and Ha-zar-ma’-veth, and Je’-rah.” (Verse 27) “And Ha-do’-ram, and U’-zal, and Dik’-lah,” (Verse 28) “And O’-bal, and A-bim’-a-el, and She’-ba,” (Verse 29) “And O’-phir, and Hav’-il-ah, and Jo’-bab: al these were the sons of Jok’-tan.” (Verse 30) “And their dwelling was from Me’-sha, as thou goest unto Se’-phar a mount of the east.” (Verse 31) “These are the sons of Shem, after their families, after their tongues, in their lands, after their nations.” (Verse 32) “These are families of the sons of No’-ah, after their generation, in their nations: and by these were the nations divided in the earth after the flood.”

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

We separated the sons of Noah so you would understand clearly whose children we are talking about when we use the name Gentiles or the times of the Gentiles. Few people understand that God gave each son of Noah a time to be in power.

The children of Ham and Shem never had the power of the children of Japheth, but still they had their time. The time of Ham and Shem has come and gone. God gave it and God took it away.

Now we are in the time of the Gentiles (sons of Japheth). This time started in full strength with the coming of Nebuchadnezzar and will continue until the tenth and last rising of the Roman Empire, in the form of the European Common Market, which Revelation calls Babylon the Great. God gave the Gentiles this time and at the time appointed, God will take it away.

Chapter XI

FOUR NATIONS BUT ONE FAMILY

“This image represents the entire gentile rulership”

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

FOUR NATIONS BUT ONE FAMILY

Now, let us go into the 2nd chapter of Daniel and look at these four beasts that rose up from the sea. This time however, we will see them as one body. This within itself will show that even though these great powers were four, they were still children of one man, Japheth, who was the father of the Gentiles. Therefore, the body is one.

In Daniel 2:1-19, Nebuchadnezzar (the first great Gentile king) had a dream and none of his wise men or soothsayers could tell him what the dream was or the meaning of it. But later, God revealed the dream and its meaning to Daniel, then Daniel went to the king and revealed it to him. See Daniel 2:25-30, (Verse 25) “The Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in haste, and said thus unto him, I have found a man of the captives of Judah, that will make known unto the king of the interpretation.” (Verse 26) “The king answered and said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, Art thou able to make known unto me the dream which I have seen, and the interpretation thereof?” (Verse 27) “Daniel answered in the presence of the king, and said, The secret which the king hath demanded cannot the wise men, the astrologers, the magicians, the soothsayers, shew unto the king.” (Verse 28) “But there is a God in heaven that revealeth secrets, and maketh known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Thy dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are these,” (Verse 29) “As for thee, O king, thy thoughts came into thy mind upon thy bed, what should come to pass hereafter: and he that revealeth secrets maketh known to thee what shall come to pass.” (Verse 30) “But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living, but for their sakes that shall make known the interpretation to the king, and that thou mightest know the thought of thy heart.”

In verse 27, Daniel lets the king know that his astrologers (stargazers), magicians (false diviners), and soothsayers (smooth talkers) could not interpret the dream (what God wanted him to know.) Verse 28 lets us know that this dream was to take place in the latter days (last days). Verse 29 says that it will come to pass hereafter (hereafter means from that time and forward). Verse 30 informed us also that this dream was a secret, but was revealed for the living's sake.

Now let us see what Nebuchadnezzar saw in his dream. Daniel 2:31-34, (Verse 31) “Thou, O king, sawest, and behold a great image. This great image, whose brightness was excellent, stood before thee; and the form thereof was terrible.” (Verse 32) “This image’s head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his thighs of brass,” (Verse 33) “His legs of iron, his feet part of iron and part of clay.” (Verse 34) “Thou sawest till that a stone was cut out without hands, which smote the image upon his feet that were iron and clay, and brake them to pieces.” This scripture tells us about a great statue. Even though this statue is composed of different types of ore, it is still one image. Starting with gold and declining to iron and clay lets us know that each kingdom was inferior to the one that preceded it.

Daniel also saw a stone that was cut out without hands smite the image on the feet. This stone represents Jesus, the stone that was rejected. See St. Matthew 21:42, “Jesus saith unto them, Did ye never read in the scriptures, THE STONE WHICH THE BUILDERS REJECTED, THE SAME IS BECOME THE HEAD OF THE CORNER: this is the Lord’s (father’s) doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes?” See Psalm 118: 22-23, (Verse 22) “The stone which the builders refused is become the head stone of the corner.” (Verse 23) “This is the lord’s doing; it is marvelous in our eyes.” Also, see Ephesians 2:20, (Verse 20) “And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone,” This is the rock on which God will build his church, not Peter.

Now let us go back to Daniel the 2nd chapter, specifically the 34th verse. This stone smote the statue on the feet and not the head. Why did it strike the feet and not the head? Because the head represented Nebuchadnezzar and his Babylon. His time has come and gone, as has the times of Medo-Persia, Greece, and old Roman Empires. Only the ten (10) toes (the European Common Market) will be around when the stone (Jesus) comes back. Daniel 2:35 makes it clear that the stone will destroy those ten toes.

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

"The ten toes represent the beast kingdom (European Common Market). The stone represents Jesus."

The stone (Jesus) will outright attach these nations. See Habakkuk 3:8-16. (Verse 8) "Was the Lord displeased against the rivers (rivers of people)? Was thine anger against the rivers? Was thy wrath against the sea, that thou didst ride upon thine horses and thine chariots of salvation?” (Verse 9) “Thy bow was made quite naked, according to the oath of the tribes, even thy word. Selah. Thou didst cleave the earth with rivers.” (Verse 10) “The mountains saw thee, and they trembled: the overflowing of the water passed by: the deep uttered his voice, and lifted up his hands on high.” (Verse 11) “The sun and moon stood still in their habitation; at the light of thine arrows they went, and at the shining of thy glittering the light of thine arrows they went, and at the shining of thy glittering spear.” (Verse 12) “Thou didst march through the land in indignation, thou didst thresh the heathen (nations) in anger.” (Verse 13) “Thou wentest forth for the salvation of thy people, even for salvation with thine anointed; thou woundedst the head out of the house of the wicked, by discovering the foundation unto the neck. Selah.” (Verse 14) “Thou didst strike through with his staves the head of his villages: they came out as a whirlwind to scatter me; their rejoicing was as to devour the poor secretly.” (Verse 15) “Thou didst walk through the sea with thine horses, through the heap of great waters.” (Verse 16) “When I heard, my belly trembled; my lips quivered at the voice: rottenness entered into my bones, and I trembled in myself, that I might rest in the day of trouble: when he cometh up unto the people, he will invade them with his troops.”

The Prophet Habakkuk saw ten toes under attack by the stone, and the vision frightened him so that he hoped he would rest (be dead) in the day of trouble. See St. Luke 20:18, “Whosoever shall fall upon that stone shall be broken; but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.” Also, in Daniel 2:35, it said that the stone that smote the image had become a great mountain (a great government) and filled the whole earth. See Zechariah 14: 19, “And the Lord shall be king over all the earth: in that day shall there be one Lord, and his name one.”

Chapter XII

BEGINNING AND END OF GENTILE RULERSHIP

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

BEGINNING AND END OF GENTILE RULERSHIP

Daniel showed the king what he had dreamed and then he explained what it meant in Daniel 2:36-43. Verse 37 tells us that Nebuchadnezzar was the first great Gentile ruler. He was a king of kings (a king that rules over kings). Think for a moment about how the times of the Gentiles started; with a king ruling over kings. It shall end the same way. The beast, man beast, will be king and he will rule over ten other kings. That is why Revelation 13: 1 said the seven headed beast had ten horns and upon his horns ten crowns. Each crown represents an individual king over his individual nation.

See Revelation 17: 12-13. (Verse 12) “And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.” (Verse 13) “These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast.” When they give the beast their power, he will be their king. Therefore, he will be a king of kings, just as Nebuchadnezzar was.

Because Nebuchadnezzar was the first king and his kingdom was called Babylon, the rising of the ten horns goes beyond the Roman Empire back to Babylon. Because the great image represents one body and Nebuchadnezzar was the head of that body, it is correctly called Babylon the Great.

Daniel 2:38 tells us that wheresoever men, beast, or birds may be, God gave them over to Nebuchadnezzar. For how long? See Jeremiah 27:6-8, (Verse 6) “And now have I given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant; and the beasts of the field have I given him also to serve him.” (Verse 7) “And all nations shall serve him, and his son, and his son’s son, until the very time of his land come: and then many nations and great kings shall serve themselves on him.” (Verse 8) “And it shall come to pass, that the nation and kingdom which will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, that nation will I punish, saith the Lord, with the sword, and with the famine, and with the pestilence, until I have consumed them by his hand.”

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

Look, the prophet Daniel was still living when Nebuchadnezzar's son Belshazzar took over. How many sons of Nebuchadnezzar had a chance to rule all nations? Daniel 5:30-31 will tell you that Belshazzar, the last king of Babylon, was slain in the night and that Darius the Mede took over not by war, but by inheritance. Also, here in Jeremiah 27:7, it spoke of many great nations serving themselves on Babylon. No nation has attacked, overthrown, or served itself on Babylon. So who are these sons of Nebuchadnezzar? They are all the Gentiles that inherited this great Gentile dynasty that he started, from Medo-Persia to the Common Market.

We have thoroughly explained, through scriptures, about Medo-Persia and Greece, so let's look at the fourth kingdom. Daniel 2:41-42, (Verse 41) "And whereas thou sawest the feet and toes part, of potters' clay, and part of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest the iron mixed with miry clay." (Verse 42) "And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly broken."

The feet and toes being part iron and part clay represent a diverseness. This diverseness shows the individuality of each nation. It also shows that this Common Market will be made up of weak and strong nations. Daniel 2:43 says, "And whereas thou sawest iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay." Here, it informs us that no matter how they mingle, they will still be separate nations. The Common Market nations signed a treaty to enhance their national welfare; not lose their national identity.

Now, let's look at Daniel 2:44-45. (Verse 44) "And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever." (Verse 45) "Forasmuch as thou sawest that the stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it broke in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God hath made known to the king what shall come to pass hereafter: and the dream is certain, and the interpretation thereof sure.”

Consider what the prophet is saying. “In the DAYS of These Kings will the God of heaven set up a Kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the Kingdom shall not be left to other people.” In the days of what kings? The answer is the ten kings that make up the European Common Market. See Daniel 7:13-14. (Verse 13) “I saw in the night visions, and, behold one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the ancient of days, and they brought him near before him.” (Verse 14) “And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.”

Now look at Daniel 7:15-25. (Verse 15) “I Daniel was grieved in my spirit in the midst of my body, and the visions of my head troubled me.” (Verse 16) “I came near unto one of them that stood by, and asked him the truth of all this. So he told me, and made me know the interpretations of the things.” (Verse 17) “These great beasts, which are four, are four kings (kingdoms), which shall rise out of the earth.” (Verse 18) “But the saints of the most High shall take the kingdom, and possess the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever.” (Verse 19) “Then I would know the truth of the fourth beast, which was diverse from all the others, exceeding dreadful, whose teeth were of iron and his nails of brass; which devoured, brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with his feet;” (Verse 20) “And of the ten horns that were in his head, and of the other which came up, and before whom three fell; even of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake great things, whose look was more stout than his fellows.” (Verse 21) “I beheld, and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them;” (See Revelation 13:7 – “And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations.”) (Verse 22) “Until the Ancient of days came, and judgment was given to the saints of the most High; and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom.” (Verse 23) “Thus he said, The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom upon the earth, which shall be diverse from all kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces.” (Verse 24) “And the ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings that shall arise: and another shall rise after them; and he shall be diverse from the first, and he shall subdue three kings.” (Verse 25) “And he shall speak great words against the most High, and shall wear out the saints of the most High, and think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time.” These changes have been made by replacing the Lord’s Sabbath Day, the 7th day of the week, with Sunday, the 1st day of the week. They have been made by replacing the Lord’s Passover with Easter and taking communion every month, when the Lord made it clear that it was to be held as a memorial of his death only once a year on Passover evening. It had also been established in Exodus the 12th chapter with the sacrificial lamb that represented Jesus, which was killed on the evening of the Passover...the same night the Last Supper was held.

These are just a few of the many changes that men have made in the word of God. See Daniel 7:25, “...and they shall be given into his hand until a time (one year), and times (two years), and the dividing of time (half a year).” See Revelation 11:2-3. (Verse 2) “But the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not; for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two months (three and a half years).” (Verse 3) “And I will give power unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and threescore days (three and a half years), clothed in sackcloth.”

The Lord gave this little horn that has eyes like a man and a mouth that spake very great things (the false prophet) three and a half years over a fourth part of the earth, along with the man beast. Their time starts when the false prophet moves into the temple that will be built in Jerusalem. After the three and a half years are over, the Lord will remove them. See Daniel 7:26. “But the judgment shall sit, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it unto the end.”

Chapter XIII

TRIBULATION PERIOD

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

TRIBULATION PERIOD (Separated from Daniel chapter 9)

Most writers and theologians ignore all the scriptures that set a three and a half year time limit on the reign of the Anti-Christ and the beast, which is the time of the great tribulation. They all say that there will be seven years of tribulation and they all use the 9th chapter of Daniel to try and prove it. It is also said by these people that the Anti-Christ is going to make a covenant with the Jews for one week (seven years) and in the middle of the week (after three and a half years), he is going to break the covenant and stop the Jews from sacrificing animals and pollute the sanctuary. Then they go on to say that at the end of the week (7 years), the Lord is going to come and pour out his wrath upon the destroyer.

Look! Five times the Bible set the time of the great tribulation at three and a half years, which is also the time of the reign of the beast and the false prophet. First in Daniel 7:25, "...time and times and the dividing of time." Second in Daniel 12:7, "time, times, and an half." Third in Revelation 11:2, "...and the holy city shall they tread under foot for forty two months." Fourth in Revelation 11:3, "...and they (two witnesses) shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and threescore days (1260 days)..." And lastly, fifth in Revelation 13:5, "power was given unto him to continue forty and two months (three and half years)."

I do not know how long the Gentiles will tread some other place, but I do know that they will only tread the holy city Jerusalem for 42 months (three and a half years). Any place else is irrelevant because Jesus said in St. Matthew 24:15-21, (Verse 15) "When ye therefore shall see the ABOMINATION OF DESOLATION, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place (whoso readeth, let him understand:)" (Verse 16) "Then let them which be in Ju-dae'-a flee into the mountains:" (Verse 17) "Let him which is on the housetop not come down to take any thing out of his house:" (Verse 18) "Neither let him which is in the field return back to take his clothes." (Verse 19) "And woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days!" (Verse 20) "But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the Sabbath day:” (Verse 21) “For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor shall ever be.”

These scriptures let us know that the great tribulation will not start until the abomination (false prophet) gets there. The four other scriptures we named earlier says he will only stay for three and a half years. The 9th chapter of Daniel is neither talking about the false prophet, nor is it talking about the same time. Part of that scripture has already been fulfilled, even down to the destruction (consumption) of Jerusalem and also, that which was determined has already been poured out upon the Jews, which are the desolate and not the desolator. It is awfully strange to me that people with great understanding of words do not know the difference between the words make and confirm or desolate and desolator. The person in Daniel 9:27 shall confirm “the covenant” with many for one week, not make a covenant with many. The desolate is one who is being destroyed, and the desolator is the one who is doing the destroying. When people make a covenant, they are making an agreement for the first time. When people confirm a covenant, they are re-establishing an agreement that has already been made in the past.

Now, let us go to the 9th chapter of Daniel and see what it is talking about. When you read this chapter, you will find in the second verse that the prophet Daniel was reading the books of the prophet Jeremiah. Daniel understood, through Jeremiah’s writing, that the Lord would accomplish seventy years in the desolation of Jerusalem. Daniel knew that Jerusalem was going to be laid to waste for more than seventy years, so he prayed to the Lord for understanding. While he was praying, the Lord sent the angel Gabriel to explain to Daniel what he wanted to know, as well as many other things including the first coming of Jesus, the time of his ministry, his death for the sins of the people, and the destruction of Jerusalem by the Roman general Titus in 70 A.D. With the exception of the last three and a half years that Jesus must teach, the prophecy was fulfilled in 70 A.D. Now, let’s break down Daniel chapter 9 verse by verse, starting at the 24th verse. We’ll let the Bible interpret this prophecy.

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

Daniel 9:24-27. (Verse 24) “Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon the holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most Holy.” (Verse 25) “Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem unto the Messiah the Prince shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times:” (Verse 26) “And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined.” (Verse 27) “And he shall confirm he covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate.”

Now in verse 24, Gabriel informed Daniel that seventy weeks are determined upon his people. That put the time far beyond seventy literal years. To be more accurate, he is talking about seventy times seven years, which is equal to 490 years ($7 \times 70 = 490$ years). Within this period of time, the temple had to be rebuilt, Jesus had to be anointed (anoint the most Holy), then he had to die for the sins of the people (make reconciliation for iniquity), and seal up the vision and prophecy. What vision you ask? The one concerning the people and the city of Jerusalem.

Daniel 9:25 tells us that from the time that the commandment is given to restore and rebuild Jerusalem unto the Messiah the Prince (to the anointing of Jesus), shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks (69 weeks = 483 years). The restoration of the temple and the city of Jerusalem started in the days of Ezra and Nehemiah. It took them forty-six years to build the temple. St. John 2:20 says “Then said the Jews, forty and six years was this in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days?” Take into consideration that the city had to be restored also, to which we can attribute the other three years which make up a full week of years

($7 \times 7 = 49$ years). In verse 26, this week of years was not counted, because it said, “After threescore and two weeks the Messiah was cut off ($62 \text{ weeks} = 434 \text{ years}$).” Add the seven weeks back on to this 62 weeks ($434 + 49 = 483 \text{ years}$) and you will get the amount of time that had to pass between the commandments to restore Jerusalem to the anointing of Jesus (Messiah means the anointed one).

Now that we understand that it took 69 weeks to bring us to the Messiah, there is only one week left. This is where the error is made by most theologians and Bible scholars: They all say there is one week left ($1 \times 7 = 7 \text{ years}$) and this is the week that the false prophet is going to make a covenant with the Jews and in the middle of the week, break the covenant, and stop them from sacrificing animals.

Please answer these three questions: (1) At what point did these scriptures stop talking about the Jews, Jerusalem, and Jesus? (2) In what area or verse did the scripture start talking about the beast or the false prophet? (3) What did Jesus do when he was anointed...Did he die the very same day? No, Jesus did not die the very same day. He had to teach for three and a half years and then be cut off (killed) so that this very prophecy would be fulfilled.

Look closely at what we read in Daniel 9:26. First it said the Messiah shall be cut off and then the people of the prince shall come and destroy the city and the sanctuary. Who is this prince? He is Satan the Devil. Paul called him the prince of the power of the air. See Ephesians 2:2, “Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience.”

Ezekiel called him the Prince of Tyrus. See Ezekiel 28:1-16. (Verse 1) “The word of the Lord came again unto me, saying,” (Verse 2) “Son of man, say unto the Prince of Ty-rus, Thus saith the Lord God; Because thine heart is lifted up, and thou hast said, I am a God, I sit in the seat of God, in the midst of the seas; yet thou art a man, and not God, though thou set thine heart as the heart of God.” (Verse 3) “Behold, thou art wiser than Daniel; there is no secret that they can hide from thee.” (Verse 4) “With thy wisdom and with thine understanding thou hast gotten thee riches, and hast gotten gold and silver into thy treasures.” (Verse 5) “By thy great wisdom and by thy traffic hast thou increased thy riches, and thine heart is lifted up because of thy riches.” (Verse 6) “Therefore, thus saith the Lord God; Because thou hast set thine heart as the heart of God,” (Verse 7) “Behold, therefore I will bring strangers upon thee, the terrible of the nations: and they shall draw their swords against the beauty of thy wisdom, and they shall defile thy brightness.” (Verse 8) “They shall bring thee down to the pit, and thou shalt die the deaths of them that are slain in the midst of the seas.” (Verse 9) “Wilt thou yet say before him that slayeth thee, I am God? But thou shalt be a man, and no God, in the hand of him that slayeth thee.” (Verse 10) “Thou shalt die the death of the uncircumcised by the hand of strangers: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord God.” (Verse 11) “Moreover the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,” (Verse 12) “Son of man, take up a lamentation upon the king of Tyrus, and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord God; Though sealest up the sum, full of wisdom and perfect in beauty.” (Verse 13) “Thou hast been in Eden the garden of God; every precious stone was thy covering, the sardius, topaz, and the diamond, the beryl, the onyx, and the jasper, the sapphire, the emerald, and the carbuncle, and gold: the workmanship of thy tabrets and of thy pipes was prepared in thee in the day that thou wast created.” (Verse 14) “Thou art the anointed cherub that covereth; and I have set thee so: thou wast upon the holy mountain of God; thou hast walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire.” (Verse 15) “Thou wast perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created, till iniquity was found in thee.” (Verse 16) “By the multitude of thy merchandise they have filled the midst of thee with violence, and thou hast sinned: therefore I will cast thee as profane out of the mountain of God: and I will destroy thee, O covering Cherub, from the stones of fire.”

In Verse 2, Ezekiel said that this person called himself God. Verse 3 said that he is wiser than Daniel (the prophet). Verse 12 said that he is full of wisdom and perfect in beauty. Verse 13 said that he has been in Eden (the Garden of God where Adam and Eve were). Verse 14 said that he was anointed the cherub that covereth and that he was upon the holy mountain of God. God's holy mountain is in heaven and a cherub is an angel...and so is Satan. Verse 15 said that he was perfect in all his ways. Look! There is no man born of a woman that can possess all of these attributes. This is talking about Satan the Devil.

In Daniel 10:11-14, Satan was called the Prince of the kingdom of Persia. How do I know that this is Satan? Because, there is no man that can even see the angel Gabriel, or any other angel for that matter, if he doesn't want to be seen. Despite this fact, Gabriel said in Verse 13 that "the Prince of the kingdom of Persia held him up for one and twenty days (21 days = three weeks)." Another angel, Michael, had to come and help him. Not only did this prince see Gabriel, he stopped him until Michael helped him break away.

Revelation the 9th chapter also let us know that Satan is the real ruler over these worldly kingdoms. This chapter actually tells us that the Common Market nations will attack Russia and its allies, and they will be lead by the angel of the bottomless pit. Revelation 9:11, "And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name is Apollyon (both names mean destroyer)."

In St. John 12:31, Jesus called him the prince of this world. Just as Satan was the prince of Tyrus and Persia, he was also the prince of Rome and he is the prince of the beast with seven heads and ten horns. See Revelation 13:1-2, "...and the dragon (Satan) gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority." So now we know who the prince is.

Who were the people of the prince? The Romans. After the death of Jesus, Jerusalem lasted until 70 A.D. That is when the Roman general, Titus, came in and destroyed the city.

Now, let's go back to Daniel the 9th chapter and look at verse 27. This 27th verse is the same as verse 26. It is telling what happened before the Messiah (Jesus) was cut off, what happened when he was cut off, and what happened after he was cut off. Therefore, we must break this 27th verse down into three parts.

PART ONE: “And he (the Messiah) shall confirm the covenant with many for one week (1x7=7 years).” What covenant? The covenant that God made with Abraham. See Genesis 15:1-18. (Verse 1) “After these things the word of the Lord came unto Abram in a vision, saying, Fear not, Abram: I am thy shield, and thy exceeding great reward.” (Verse 2) “And Abram said, Lord God, what wilt thou give me, seeing I go childless, and the steward of my house is this Eliezer of Damascus?” (Verse 3) “And Abram said, Behold, to me thou hast given no seed: and, lo, one born in my house is mine heir.” (Verse 4) “And, behold, the word of the Lord came unto him, saying, This shall not be thine heir; but he that shall come forth out of thine own bowels shall be thine heir.” (Verse 5) “And he brought him forth abroad, and said, Look now toward heaven, and tell the stars, if thou be able to number them: and he said unto him, So shall thy seed be.” (Verse 6) “And he believed in the Lord; and he counted it to him for righteousness.” (Verse 7) :And he said unto him, I am the Lord that brought thee out of UR of the Chaldees, to give thee this land to inherit it.” (Verse 8) “And he said, Lord God, whereby shall I know that I shall inherit it?” (Verse 9) “And he said unto him, Take me an heifer of three years old, and a she goat of three years old, and a ram of three years old, and a turtledove, and a young pigeon.” (Verse 10) “And he took unto him all these and divided them in the midst, and laid each piece against another: but the birds divided he not.” (Verse 11) “And when the fowls came down upon the carcasses, Abram drove them away.” (Verse 12) “And when the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell upon Abram; and, lo, an horror of great darkness fell upon him.” (Verse 13) “And he said unto Abram, Know of a surety that thy seed shall be a stranger in a land that is not theirs, and shall serve them; and they shall afflict them four hundred years;” (Verse 14) “And also that nation whom they shall serve, will I judge: and afterward shall they come out with great substance.” (Verse 15) “And thou shalt go thy fathers in peace; thou shalt be buried in a good old age.” (Verse 16) “But in the fourth generation they shall come hither again: for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet full.” (Verse 17) “And it came to pass, that, when the sun went down, and it was dark, behold a smoking furnace, and a burning lamp that passed between those pieces.” (Verse 18) “In the same day the Lord made a covenant with Abram, saying, Unto thy seed have I given this land, from the river of Egypt unto the great river, the river Euphrates.”

God promised Abram (later changed to Abraham) that he was going to have a son as his heir and that his seed will be as the stars of heaven (so many that he would not be able to count them). Verse 6 tells us that Abraham believed the Lord and he counted it to him for righteousness. Verse 18 tells us that the Lord made a covenant with Abraham. In Genesis 22:17-18, he extended to Abraham the blessings from a natural plain to a spiritual plain and said “And in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed.”

Now see Galatians 3:6, “Even as Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness.” See Galatians 3:13-16, and verse 29. (Verse 13) “Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree.” (Verse 14) “That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might received the promise of the Spirit through faith.” (Verse 15) “Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; Though it be but a man’s covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto.” (Verse 16) “Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ.” (Verse 29) “And if ye be Christ’s, then are ye Abraham’s seed, and heirs according to the promise.” Abraham kept his end of the covenant that God made with him, therefore this covenant turned into an irreversible promise. When Jesus (the Messiah) came, he confirmed it. See Romans 15:8, “Now I say that Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to CONFIRM the promises made unto the fathers (Abraham and his seed):” Now we know that Jesus was the one that confirmed the covenant with many for one week. Few people know about the covenant made with Abraham, which was not broken. The covenant that was broken was made with the nation of Israel.

Malachi 3:1 speaks of a messenger that the Lord will send before him to prepare the way just before he comes. That messenger was John the Baptist the first time he came to earth. However, this verse also speaks of another messenger that followed John, and he is called THE MESSENGER OF THE COVENANT. Who is this messenger? The Lord himself.

“BEHOLD, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even The Messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he shall come, saith the Lord of hosts.” Jesus (the Messiah) is the one that came after John the Baptist, and he (Jesus) was the one that confirmed the covenant with many because He is the Messenger of the covenant.

PART TWO: “And in the midst of the week (after half of the week), he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation (animal sacrifices) to cease.” How did Jesus stop the sacrifice? By dying for the sins of man. Verse 26 tells us that the Messiah was cut off, but not for himself. In order to understand how the death of Jesus stopped the animal sacrifices, we must have some understanding of the temple of God and the veil that was hung in it. The inside of the temple was like a big meeting hall, or one big open room. This big hall was separated by a large curtain, which the Bible calls a veil.

"Before the veil was ripped, sacrifices and oblations were in order."

This veil separated the hall into two sections. The area of the hall in front of the veil (curtain) was called the holy place, and the area behind the veil was called the most holy places. Before the temple was built, God had Israel to make a huge tent and separate it with a large linen veil. Whether tent or temple, the pattern was the same. See Exodus 26: 31-34. (Verse 31) "And thou shalt make a veil of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen of cunning work: with cherubims shall it be made:" (Verse 32) "And thou shalt hang it upon four pillars of shittim wood overlaid with gold: and their hooks shall be of gold, upon the four sockets of silver." (Verse 33) "And thou shalt hang up the vail under the taches, that thou mayest bring in thither within the veil the ark of the testimony: and the vail shall divide unto you between the holy place and the most holy." (Verse 34) "And thou shalt put the mercy seat upon the ark of the testimony in the most holy place."

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

All year long, the high priest could go in before the veil and offer the blood of the animal sacrifice. But only once a year could he go behind the veil to offer the blood of the animal sacrifice, which was only on the Day of Atonement. In front of the veil was a table and candle sticks but behind the veil, there was the ark of the covenant and the mercy seat (which represented the presence of God). Sometimes the area behind the veil is called the holy place, but when the mercy seat is mentioned, you know that it is the most Holy area.

See Leviticus 16:2-5. (Verse 2) “And the Lord said unto Moses, Speak unto Aaron thy brother, that he come not at all times into the holy place within the veil before the mercy seat, which is upon the ark; that he die not: for I will appear in the cloud upon the mercy seat.” (Verse 3) “Thus shall Aaron come into the holy place with a young bullock for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering.” (Verse 4) “He shall put on the holy linen coat, and he shall have the linen breeches upon his flesh, and shall be girded with a linen girdle, and with the linen mitre shall he be attired: these are holy garments; therefore shall he wash his flesh in the water, and so put them on.” (Verse 5) “And he shall take of the congregation of the children of Israel two kids of the goats of a sin offering, and one ram for a burnt offering.”

In verse 2, the Lord told Moses to tell Aaron not to come at all times within the veil where the mercy seat is located (that is the most holy place, and the High Priest could only enter into it once a year). Why are we making such a fuss over the veil that hung inside the temple? Because the animal sacrifices were centered around the veil. Now, let us see what happened to the veil when Christ died on the cross.

See St. Matthew 27:50-51. (Verse 50) “Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost (died).” (Verse 51) “And behold, the veil of the temple was rent (torn) in twain from top to bottom; and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent;”

"After the veil was ripped, sacrifices and oblations ceased. There were no more animal sacrifices for sin."

When the veil tore from top to bottom, that brought to an end the sacrificing of animals for sin. In short, Jesus the Messiah caused the sacrifice and oblation to cease. For more information concerning animal sacrifices and how it related to Jesus, see Hebrews 9th and 10th chapters. Particularly Hebrews 10:19-20, and verse 26. (Verse 19) "Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus," (Verse 20) "By a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh." (Verse 26) "For if we sin willfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins," Why doesn't there remain any more sacrifices for sin? Because all the sacrifices and oblations for sin pointed toward the coming of Jesus. When he came and died for sin, the ultimate sacrifice had been made. Therefore, the killing of animals for sin ceased.

PART THREE: "And for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate.” What does this scripture mean when it says, “for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate?” Who is this “He” that shall destroy Jerusalem? To get the answer, let’s go to the sources, which is in the 25th chapter of Jeremiah.

Remember, Daniel was praying to the Lord to give him understanding in what he read in the book of Jeremiah. Jeremiah 25:1-12, (Verse 1) “The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon;” (Verse 2) “The which Jeremiah the prophet spake unto all the people of Judah, and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying,” (Verse 3) “From the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, even unto this day, that is the three and twentieth year, the word of the Lord hath come unto me, and I have spoken unto you rising early and speaking; but ye have not hearkened.” (Verse 4) “And the Lord hath sent unto you all his servants the prophets, rising early and sending them; but ye have not hearkened, nor inclined your ear to hear.” (Verse 5) “They said, Turn ye again now everyone from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land that the Lord hath given unto you and to your fathers for ever and ever.” (Verse 6) “And go not after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, and provoke me not to anger with the works of your hands; and I will do you no hurt.” (Verse 7) “Yet ye have not hearkened unto me, saith the Lord; that ye might provoke me to anger with the works of your hands to your own hurt.” (Verse 8) “Therefore thus saith the Lord of hosts; Because ye have not heard my words,” (Verse 9) “Behold, I will send and take all the families of the north, saith the Lord, and Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against the inhabitants thereof, and against all these nations round about, and will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, and an hissing, and perpetual desolations.” (Verse 10) “Moreover I will take from them the voice of the mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the sound of the millstones, and the light of the candle.” (Verse 11) “And this whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonishment; and these nations shall serve the King of Babylon seventy years.” (Verse

12) “And it shall come to pass, when the seventy years are accomplished, that I will punish the king of Babylon, and that nation, saith the Lord, for their iniquity, and the land of the Chaldeans, and will make it perpetual desolations.”

In this chapter, the Lord is telling the Jews how he had sent his prophets to them, but they would not listen. He told them to turn everyone from their evil ways and from their evil doings, and dwell in the land that he had given to their fathers forever. He told them not to go after other gods and provoke him to anger. Despite the Lord's warning, the Jews still would not listen. Finally, the Lord had enough and he announced sentence on them. Note verses 8, 9, and 11. (Verse 8) “Therefore thus saith the Lord of hosts; Because ye have not heard my words,” (Verse 9) “Behold, I will send and take all the families of the north, saith the Lord, and Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon and bring them against this land, and against the inhabitants thereof...and will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, and an hissing, and perpetual desolations.” (Verse 11) “And this whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonishment; and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years.”

These are the seventy years Daniel inquired about, that the angel turned into seventy weeks. Now in the 12th verse, the Lord said when the seventy years were finished, he would punish the king of Babylon.

Look! Daniel outlived Nebuchadnezzar and his son and lived through the time of the Medo-Persian Empire. Therefore, the prophecy extended to the rise of Babylon the Great (Revelation chapters 13 and 17). However, Daniel was not concerned about Babylon. He wanted to know about the welfare of the Jews and the city of Jerusalem. That is what the angel told him. The desolation started under Nebuchadnezzar, King of Babylon, and extended to the Roman Empire. Therefore, it was the Lord that made Jerusalem desolate, even until the consummation. It was he that determined that this destruction would be poured upon the desolate (the Jews). Why did he destroy the city and the people? Simply because of the overspreading of abominations (sins without limitations). Even though it was the people of the prince that destroyed the Jews and the city, it was the Lord that determined it would be done.

Jesus spoke of this desolation (destruction) when he was here because of what he had already told Jeremiah in the 25th chapter and what he sent Gabriel to tell Daniel. See St. Luke 21:20-24. (Verse 20) “And when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolations thereof is nigh.” (Verse 21) “Then let them which are in Judea flee to the mountains; and let them which are in the midst of it depart out; and let not them that are in the countries enter thereinto.” (Verse 22) “For these be the days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled.” (Verse 23) “But woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck, in those days! For there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon thy people (the Jews).” (Verse 24) “And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.”

This scripture has been interpreted by many Bible scholars as strictly speaking of the end times and say that it is to be fulfilled in the days of the beast and false prophet. But when you compare the 21st chapter of Luke with the 24th chapter of St. Matthew, you will find that St. Matthew made a general observation. He was not too particular about the arrangement of events, the time that the Jews had to flee from Jerusalem to avoid trouble, and the time that the abomination would stand in the holy place. In short, he lumped it all together.

However, Luke was very specific. He let us know that Jerusalem would be destroyed and that the Jews would be led into captivity. He let us know that they would not be in Jerusalem when the abomination stands in the Holy Place because the abomination of desolation is a Gentile and as long as the abomination is in power, it is the times of the Gentiles

Now, let us analyze St. Luke 21:20-24. (Verse 20) “When you shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh.” When the Roman general Titus led his armies against Jerusalem in 70 A.D., he made a perimeter around the city and no one could get out or in. That is why Jesus said in verse 21, “Then let them that are in Judea flee to the mountains; and let them in the midst of the city depart out...” and in verse 22, “for these be the days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled.” All of what things? The desolation that was determined and written in Jeremiah the 25th chapter and then written again in Daniel the 9th chapter. (Verse 23) “But woe unto them that are with child...for there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people.” (Daniel 9:27, “and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate.”)

Under the Roman siege, those Jews that were in the city (pregnant women and children also, died in great numbers from starvation and various types of diseases. Many Jews that were outside of the city tried to sneak food into it and were caught and crucified by the Romans. History states that the number caught sometimes reached up to 500 a day. Inside, the street was full of dead bodies and outside, the crosses were full of the same. (Verse 24) “And they (the Jews), shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.”

The rest of this chapter goes on to tell about the great tribulation (presided over by the beast and false prophet) and the coming of the Lord. However, the destruction of Jerusalem that was determined in Jeremiah the 25th chapter and then written of in Daniel the 9th chapter was accomplished in 70 A.D. Those Jews that survived were carted off into slavery and are still in captivity today.

It is widely believed that the Jews went back to Jerusalem in 1948, after World War II, but how can that be so? IT totally contradicts ALL prophecy. Why? Because Jesus said that Jerusalem shall be trodden under foot by the Gentiles until the time of the Gentiles be fulfilled. The Gentile time will not end until the Lord comes. Jeremiah tells you how the Lord is going to destroy Babylon (Babylon the Great). Revelation the 17th chapter speaks of Babylon the Great (beast with seven heads and ten horns).

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

Verse 12-14 say that those ten horns will make war with the Lamb; but the Lamb will overcome them.

There is almost no end to the scriptures that show the end of the time of the Gentiles, and each one says that the Lord shall end it. As long as the Gentiles are in power, the Jews and all Israelites must remain in captivity. The scripture says flee when you see the abomination standing in the holy place. Therefore I advise you, whoever you are in Jerusalem at that time, to do so. Also to the Israelites, I say flee to the same wilderness from whatever country you are in because the wilderness will be the only safe place on the earth.

Now that we have some understanding of the 9th chapter of Daniel, we know that it was talking about the Jews, the city of Jerusalem, and Jesus. It has nothing to do with the false prophet or the beast. The scripture that deals with these two individuals sets their time to reign at three and one half years, the time of the great tribulation. When their time is fulfilled, Jesus, The Holy One of Israel, The Lion of Judah, will come and invade them with his army.

Now, in order to read about this great battle between God and man, which the Bible calls Armageddon, we must go to Revelation. Revelation 19:19-21. (Verse 19) "And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army." (Verse 20) "And the Beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the Beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire and brimstone." (Verse 21) "And the remnant were slain with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, which sword proceeded out of his mouth: and all the fowls were filled with their flesh." Note verse 20 and 21. (Verse 20) "And the beast was taken (man beast) and with the false prophet that worked miracles before him." (Verse 21) "And the remnant were slain with the sword of him that sat on the horse."

When this battle is finished, the times of the Gentiles will be finished also. We have read what Jesus is going to do with the beast (man beast), the false prophet, and their armies (the strength of the ten nations that make up the beast with seven heads and ten horns.) But what about their king, the angel of the bottomless pit? See the 20th chapter of Revelation.

Revelation 20:1-2 and 30. (Verse 1) “And I saw an angel come down from heaven, having the key to the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand.” (Verse 2) “And he laid hold on the dragon (that gave the beast his seat, power, and great authority), that old serpent (that deceived Eve in the Garden of Eden), which is the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thousand years,” (Verse 30) “And cast him into the bottomless pit (that is the reason why he is called the angel of the bottomless pit), and shut him up, and set a seal upon him, that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled: and after that he must be loosed for a little season.”

The reason Satan will be loosed for a little season after the thousand years is to try the flesh and blood people that live during that time, just as we are being tried now. Once they have been tried, Satan will be put away permanently.

After Jesus has put an end to the rule of this great Gentile dynasty, then will come to pass the words spoken in Revelation 11:15, “And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world will become the kingdoms of our Lord, and his Christ, and he shall reign for ever and ever.”

Jesus will take his place on the throne of David (Luke 1:31-33) and reign forever. This earthly kingdom that he is going to take away from the Gentile rulers is the same kingdom he will place in the hands of his saints, which will fulfill the writing of the Prophet Daniel.

Daniel 7:27, “And the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom UNDER the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey

If God is going to set up his kingdom in the days of these ten kings and we are looking at them under the name of the European Common Market, ask yourself this one question: WHAT TIME IS IT? Read your bible and pray for understanding. It's later than you think.

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

COMMENTARY

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

Commentary

This is a book written about prophecy. As you have probably noticed, it is also written about world history. Most theologians try to separate the word of God from the activities of men, but it is virtually impossible to do so because prophecy is world history.

The Lord had this history written before hand so that men would understand what the future holds. Also, so that man would see how accurate the prophets have defined the rising and falling of kingdoms, in correct order, and in most cases by the names of the kingdoms. Lastly, so that man can know that only God can inspire men to make such accurate predictions.

Even the Apostle Peter, in II Peter 1:20-21, made mention of that inspiration. (Verse 20) “Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation.” (Verse 21) “For the prophecy came not in the old times by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost (Holy Spirit).”

There is no reasonable minded person that can deny that God, and only God, can accomplish such accurate predictions. When you consider the time these prophesies were written, the amount of men involved in the writings, and the various conditions they were under when they made these writings, you cannot deny that they were inspired by God.

The Prophet Jeremiah was a free man in Jerusalem when he wrote about these things. Conversely, the Prophet Daniel was in captivity in Babylon when he wrote about them. I could go on and on to point out the different conditions and still show you that they, and others, wrote about the same things.

All of the prophets and apostles were Israelites, people of one nation, but their writings were about people of all nations. Some of these men did not understand some of the things they wrote about. The Prophet Daniel wrote something and did not understand it. In fact, he asked God what it meant but the Lord would not tell him. See Daniel 12:8-9. (Verse 8) “And I heard, but I understood not: then said I, O my Lord, what shall be the end of these things?” (Verse 9) “And he said, Go thy way, Daniel: for the words are closed up and sealed till the time of the end.” God went on to tell him that the wise shall understand, but at what time? The time of the end. That prophecy was not for Daniel’s time, but for the people that would be living in the time of the end (our time). But, there is a strange thing that has happened here in the time of the end. The people that have access to this knowledge that Daniel wrote and inquired about don’t want to know about it, neither do they have any interest in any writings of the prophets. Almost everyone says that we don’t need prophecy. “It has already been fulfilled.” “We are New Testament Christians.”

Yes, strange indeed. Especially when you consider that the birth of Jesus was first written of by the prophets. The war of Armageddon was also written of first by the prophets. So was the first and second coming of Jesus, the first and last resurrection, the Judgment Day, even about the pouring out of the Holy Spirit (Holy Ghost). There are many things that can be pointed out in the Old Testament that have not been fulfilled but we will only point out this one thing, that we might ask one question: When was this fulfilled?

See Isaiah 11:1-9. (Verse 1) “And there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots:” (Verse 2) “And the spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the Lord.” (Verse 3) “And shall make him of quick understanding in the fear of the Lord: and he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither reprove after he hearing of his ears:” (Verse 4) “But with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and reprove with equity for the meek of he earth: and he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked.” (Verse 5) “And righteousness shall be the girdle of his loins, and faithfulness the girdle of his reigns.” (Verse 6) “The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the Leopard shall lie down with the kid; and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together; and a little child shall lead them.” (Verse 7) “And the cow and the bear shall feed; their young ones shall lie down together: and the lion shall eat straw like the ox.” (Verse 8) “And the suckling child shall play on the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the cockatrice den.” (Verse 9) “They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain: for the earth shall be full of knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea.”

Now ask yourself, when has it come to pass that the wolf, lamb, leopard, bear, and cow can live and lie down together without one of them being eaten by one of the others? When is the last time you saw a child leading any carnivorous beast such as these and not get attacked by them? Do lions eat straw now, or are they still meat eaters? Can a sucking child (a small, un-weaned baby) play on an asp (poisonous snake) hole and not be harmed? Can a child play on a cockatrice den (another poisonous snake) and not be bitten? I won’t even ask you about this stem and branch that came out of the rod of Jesse, which is also the Root of Jesse (David’s father). In fact, we will act as though this scripture is not even there. Just ask yourself if the animals are at peace with one another and with man. Can you honestly say that the earth is as full of the knowledge of God as the waters that cover the sea? When the 11th chapter of Isaiah is fulfilled, still all prophecy will not have been fulfilled, and this will not take place until the thousand years of peace (the millennium period).

Jesus brought the testimony (which makes up the New Testament), and Revelation 19:10 will tell you that the testimony of Jesus is the Spirit of Prophecy. This scripture is telling us that if there were no prophecy there would be nothing to testify about, because testimony means to affirm or establish existing facts. When have you ever heard of anyone being called to court as a witness to testify against a murderer when there has been no murder committed? Jesus and all the apostles merely testified to what the prophets had already written. Everything that happened to Jesus, even to words that were spoken while he was on the cross, had already been written. When you understand what testimony means, you will also understand that everything that is written in the New Testament is already written in the Old Testament, and if it is not written in the Old Testament, it is not written in the New Testament. Therefore, the New Testament is merely a repeat of the Old Testament. That is why the testimony of Jesus is called the spirit of prophecy.

There are a few observations I have made that cause me to greatly wonder. I often wonder exactly why many people, that claim to read the same book, can come to so many different conclusion? There are schools of theology and degrees earned in just about every denomination upon the earth. The Roman Catholics have a school, the Lutherans have a school, so do the Methodists, Baptists, and many others. Most of these schools issue degrees to their graduates. When one looks at all of these different degrees which are passed out by all of these different schools of theology, which only teach the doctrine of their particular denomination, which are also so different, one is left to wonder which degree is valid. When I look at the schools of other professions, I don't see these conflicts and their graduates seem to talk the same language when they come together. Take, for instance, electrical engineers. There have been times when electrical engineers from different countries and nationalities came together to work on the same project in total harmony. There have been times when scholars of physics, science, mathematics, and various fields of medicine came together from different nations, with different cultures, and were able to work in harmony because they spoke the same professional language.

I was born and raised in America, but the profession that I have earned my living in, and have housed and fed my family with, was taught to me by a gentleman who was born, raised, and educated in India. How was this man, who was educated in another country out of technical manuals written in another language, able to come to America and teach that same profession to students who were born and raised here? How were those same students able to take that same profession, go into American companies and corporations, and work along side students educated by teachers who were born and raised in America...with the exact same skill and professionalism? The answer is simple: These teachers learned the profession from books that held the same information. They may have been written in different languages, but the concepts were the same. One plus one is two regardless of the language it is written in.

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

The word of God is universal. There are no different set of rules. Once rule applies to all because God Is the creator of all. Man is the one that created denominations, not God. Nowhere is it written in the Bible that this group of people are Catholic, that this group of people are Baptists, and this group are Lutheran, and this group are Methodists, and that group is Greek-Orthodox, and this group is Jewish, and that group is Pentecostal, etc.

There is a man in the Bible that was named John, who was the first to baptize people. Therefore, men called him John the Baptist. Why was he called that? For the same reason that men who work on cars or other machines are called mechanics, men that cut hair are called barbers, and men that build houses are called carpenters. John baptized people, therefore, he was called the Baptist. John had no following which he called Baptist. He told people to follow the one that was to come after him. The baptizing that he was going was a requirement of him that came after him, which was Jesus.

God is one and his word came from one source. There is no division in God. He did not say, “These set of rules are for the Jews, and this set is for the Christians.” Neither did he say, “The first day of the week is the Christian’s Sabbath day.” God said the seventh day of the week was HIS Sabbath day and he made no mention at all about the first day.

I know that you will say that the first day of the week is the Christian’s Sabbath day because Christ rose on that day. But it is also said that Christ died on (Good) Friday. Christ said in St. Matthew the 12th chapter that he would be in the heart of the earth (the grave) for three days and three nights. If he died Friday evening (on Good Friday), how was it possible for him to rise Sunday morning? His first night in the grave would have been Friday night, and if you add two more nights to that, it would be Sunday night...that is one night too many. We won’t even bother to count the days because the nights kill that theory. Christ’s first night in the grave was Wednesday night – now you can figure out the rest of it. After you figure it out, you will find that he still didn’t rise Sunday morning. Just remember, you can’t go beyond three days and three nights because Christ doesn’t lie. Even if he had rose on the first day of the week, that still would not have created another Sabbath day.

If God had intended to give the Jews one thing and the Christians something else, why did he send his word by the hand of the Jews (Israelites) only? Even Paul, the Apostle to the Gentiles was an Israelite (a Benjamite to be exact). Therefore, everything was given to the Jews. This includes the laws and all of his word. Hebrews 8:8-12 will tell you that even the New Covenant will be made with the house of Israel and the house of Judah (the Jews). Therefore, if the Jews have it all, what is left for the rest of the sons of Adam?

The Jews are a people, not a denomination. A biological Jew is a person that came out of the lineage of Jacob's son Judah. To be a Christian does not mean you are a part of a domination, it simply means to be a follower of Christ. Therefore, all that follow Christ are Christians, be he a Jew, Israelite, Hamite, or Gentile. All who do not follow Christ will not get salvation, be he Jew, Israelite, Hamite, or Gentile.

The same laws that govern one people, govern all. There is no separation between the servants of God. The seventh day of the week is the Lord's Sabbath day. It represents the millennium (1000 years of peace), which is the Lord's day of rest. It's the same day that Paul told us to labor to enter into (Hebrews chapter 4).

Look! All repeated adulterers, thieves, repeated liars, and other that break God's commandments will be cut off if they continue to do so, be he Jew, Israelite, Hamite, or Gentile. As I said before, God is one and his word came from one source. Recognizing the fact that God is one and the word of God comes from one source, this makes it necessary to accept the Bible as one book. Therefore, there cannot be Old Testament servants of God and New Testament servants. There can only be one set of servants and their source of knowledge must come from the same place, which is the entire Bible (from Genesis to Revelation).

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

Just to show you the oneness of the Bible, we will compare a few scriptures from the Old testament with a few scriptures from the New Testament.

O.T. stands for Old Testament N.T. stands for New Testament

1. O.T. Isaiah 7:14 - "Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign; Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel."
1. N.T. Matthew 1:23 - "Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel (Immanuel), which being interpreted is, God with us."
2. O.T. Isaiah 34:4 - "And all the host of heaven shall be dissolved, and the heavens shall be rolled together as a scroll: and all their host shall fall down, as the leaf falleth off from the vine, and as a falling fig from the fig tree."
2. N.T. Revelation 6:13-14 - "And the stars of the heaven fall unto the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind." (Verse 14) "And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places."
3. O.T. Joel 2:31 - "The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and terrible day of the Lord come."
3. N.T. Revelation 6:12 - "And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and, lo, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood;"
4. O.T. Psalm 132:11 - "The Lord hath sworn in truth unto David; he will not turn from it; Of the fruit of thy body will I set upon thy throne." (Isaiah 9:6-7, "For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counselor, The might God, the everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace."

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

(Verse 7) “Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will preform this.”)

4. N.T. Luke 1:31-33 – “And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS.” (Verse 32) “He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David.” (Verse 33) “And he shall reign over the house of Jacob (Israel) for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.
5. O.T. Isaiah 65:17 – “For, behold, I create new heavens and a new earth: and the former shall not be remembered, nor come into mind.”
5. N.T. Revelation 21:1 – “And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.”
6. O.T. Jeremiah 25:30 – “Therefore prophesy thou against them all these words, and say unto them, The Lord shall roar from on high (descend), and utter his voice from his holy habitation; he shall mightily roar upon his habitation; he shall give a shout, as they that tread the grapes, against all the inhabitants of the earth.”
6. N.T. I Thessalonians 4:16 – “For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first.”
7. O.T. Isaiah 66:23-24 – “And it shall come to pass, that from one new moon to another, and from one Sabbath to another, shall all flesh come to worship before me, saith the LORD.” (Verse 24) “And they shall go forth, and look upon the carcases of the men that have transgressed against me: for their worm shall not die, either shall their fire be quenched; and they shall be an abhorring unto all flesh.”

7. N.T. Mark 9:43-44 – “And if thy hand offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter into life maimed, than having two hands to go into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched.” (Verse 44) “Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched. (Verse 45-48 repeats the same thing; “where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.”)

These are just a few examples of many. If we compare all of the scriptures in both Testaments, there would be scripture left in the New Testament. All of the scriptures in the New Testament have an Old Testament mate. We just have to be zealous enough to search them out and have enough of God’s wisdom in us to recognize them when we come across them.

Somewhere in the past, we have allowed ourselves to be persuaded that it is not necessary to have knowledge, and that all we need is faith. Well, we agree with the faith part, but the question is, how does one come to have faith? The Apostle Paul wrote that faith comes by hearing. Romans 10:17, “So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.”

What is faith anyway? Faith merely means belief. Before you can believe in anything, you must first hear about it. Before you can hear about anything, words must be spoken. If God had not spoken his word to the prophets, they would not have had anything to write. If the prophets had not written anything, there would not have been anything for Jesus and the apostles to testify of. That is why Paul said, “Faith come by hearing (belief comes by hearing), and hearing by the word of God.” Therefore, true belief within itself constitutes knowledge because one cannot believe in something he doesn’t know about.

People will say that they don’t need to know about prophecy, because they are lead by the spirit. Well, you had better read what John wrote in I John 4:1, “Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.” How can you try the spirits if you don’t have any knowledge? You must first know what God requires of his servants. Then, if any person or though in your mind comes to you speaking anything concerning the wishes of God, you will know if it's right or wrong because you have the knowledge of God's word. In short, before you can know what is wrong, you must first know what is right. Understand this, knowledge comes before faith because through hearing the word of God, one is persuaded to have faith in God.

There is another thing that man is doing and that is re-writing the Bible. The reason for doing so, they say, is to make it easier to understand. They say that old English words cannot be understood by English speaking people of the modern times. I would conclude that the same thing is being said and done in other languages.

I have closely examined some of those books and the more I look, the more I understand why John wrote in Revelation 22:18-19, "For I testify unto every man that hearth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book:" (Verse 19) "And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book." John must have known that this very thing was going to happen.

I, for one, am here in these last days to testify that the warning of John was not without reason. Because in the process of making the Bible easier to understand, man has robbed the Bible and changed the whole face of it in these new versions. They have woefully added to it and taken away from it. Each one that has rewritten it has made it confirm to the doctrine of their particular denomination or to their modern way of thinking.

Now, what is so hard about these words? Nothing. There is no need to rewrite the Bible or even change a word. If you don't know what a word means, use the skills that you were taught in school. Pick up a dictionary!

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

The problem with some of the modernized bibles is that sometimes, they change the wrong words and that can change the whole concept. However, one can overcome the changing of a word here or there if he or she has an overall knowledge of the entire Bible (Old and New Testament). But, the rewriters are not satisfied with changing a word here or there. They go in, and in some cases, change entire sentences, paragraphs, and names. Some, in their infinite wisdom, have even left off the Old Testament entirely while others never even bother to include the New Testament.

Just to show you how important it is to leave the Bible as it is, we will pick something as simple as the Lord's Prayer and show the real message that would be lost if just a few words were altered or left out. "Thy kingdom come; thy will be done, in earth as it is in heaven." What are these few seemingly insignificant words telling us? They are telling us that God's Kingdom is coming to earth. They are also telling us that when it gets here, God's will, and his will alone, will be done on the earth as it is presently being done in heaven. How do we know what these words mean? First, because it says so and secondly, it is foretold by all of the prophets.

Moses wrote about this in Deuteronomy 30:1-4. In this scripture, Moses is telling the Israelites that after all of the blessings and curses that are written in the 28th chapter of Deuteronomy have come upon them, they will call to mind in all the nations where the Lord has driven them. Then, they will return to the Lord and obey his voice and the Lord will turn their captivity. (Verse 3) "That then the Lord thy God will turn thy captivity, and have compassion upon thee, and will return and gather thee from all the nations..." (Verse 4) "If any of thine be driven out unto the utmost parts of heaven, from thence will the Lord thy God gather thee..." This is speaking of the same time that Jesus spoke of it in Matthew 24:31. "And he shall send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other (the utmost parts of heaven). Matthew 24:27-31 details the coming of the Lord. This will only happen once. Moses wrote primarily of the return of the physical nation of Israel, but Matthew let us know that at that time, the Lord is going to gather all his elect whether they are living or dead.

King David wrote about the “Coming” in Psalm 2:1-12. Here, it is speaking of how the kings of the earth vainly thought they could break away from the Lord and his anointed (Father and Son). However, the Lord shall laugh and have them in derision. Then, shall he speak to them in is wrath and vex them in his sore displeasure. When will he do this to the kings of the earth? At the war of Armageddon. After this, verse 6 will be fulfilled. The Father’s king is Jesus and the holy hill of Zion that he will set his king upon is Jerusalem. The Father’s will, and his will alone, will be done in earth because the son is going to enforce it. That is why verse 12 warns us to “Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and ye perish from the way, when his wrath is kindled but a little.”

The Prophet Zechariah wrote about the coming of the Lord, and his kingdom in Zechariah 14:1-9. Verse 2 tells us that the Lord is going to gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle. Jerusalem is where the war of Armageddon will be fought, which is also called the valley of Jehoshaphat – meaning “The Valley where Jehovah Judges.” Verse 3 tells us that at that time, the Lord shall go forth and fight as he did in the day of battle (The day when he brought Israel out of Egypt and led them into the land of Canaan). The rest of the scripture tells us that his feet will stand upon the Mount of Olives and when he comes, he will have all of his Saints with him. Pay close attention to verse 9 because it makes it clear that the Lord, and the Lord alone, will be King over all the earth. Will his will be done? Yes, because all who do not submit to his will are going to suffer the wrath that is written in Zechariah 14:16-19. (Verse 16) “And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem shall even go up from year to year to worship the King, the Lord of Hosts, and to keep the feast of tabernacle.” (Verse 17) “And it shall be, that whoso will not come up of all the families of the earth unto Jerusalem to worship the King, the Lord of Hosts, even upon them shall be no rain.” (Verse 18) “And if the family of Egypt go not up, and come not, that have no rain; that shall be the plague, wherewith the Lord will smite the heathen that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.” (Verse 19) “This shall be the punishment of Egypt, and the punishment of all nations that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.” Therefore, all will do his will or suffer the consequences.

Just by removing “Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven;” you would have removed the heart of the Gospel. I know of no major changes in the Lord’s Prayer, but used it to show how the removal of a few words can hide a great message.

Now, we will look at a change that makes a major difference. In Hebrews the 3rd and 4th chapters, the Apostle Paul is telling the people how God was provoked by Israel in the wilderness and how God was grieved with them for forty years. God lead them around until all of the Israelites that came out of Egypt from 20 years old and upward died, with the exception of Joshua and Caleb. Because they had provoked him so many times, God swore that they would not enter into his rest. Paul is warning the people not to be like the those that died in the wilderness, who hardened their hears and would not obey the word of God. Paul gives this warning because if people failed to obey God, just as the Israelites in the wilderness did, neither would they enter into God’s rest, which is the millennium (1000 years of peace with Christ, Revelation 20:4).

In Hebrews 4:1-11, Paul is telling the people that God has set a certain day for his people to rest from their labor and he let them know that day has not yet come. Therefore Paul said, “Let us labor to enter that reset, lest we fall the same way they did.” But verse 8 is where the change is made in some of the rewritten Bibles. The name of Jesus was replaced with the name of Joshua. The people who replaced the name of Jesus with Joshua will tell you that they did it because Jesus means Joshua in the Hebrew language.

Look, we know that the Hebrew name of Jesus is Joshua. However, we also know that Joshua did not lead Israel in the wilderness for forty years, Moses did. Therefore, we still could not use the name Joshua. Joshua was a follower like everyone else. When his time came to lead Israel, the forty years in the wilderness had already been completed and Moses had died. See Joshua 1:1-2. (Verse 1) “Now after the death of Moses the servant of the Lord, it came to pass, that the Lord spake unto Joshua the son of Nun, Moses’ minister, saying,” (Verse 2) “Moses my servant is dead; now therefore arise, go over this Jordan, thou, and all this people, unto the land which I do give to them, even to the children of Israel.” Joshua did exactly as he was told. He rose and lead the children of Israel across the Jordan River into the Land of Canaan.

Hebrews 4:8 says, “If Jesus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.” Look at what this scripture is saying. It is speaking of a time of rest. This is not talking about sitting down and taking a breather. Those Israelites did not walk around for forty years without making camp and sleeping, neither did they rise up every day and travel. Sometimes, they stayed in one place and did not move for weeks.

So, what kind of rest was it that God swore that those people would not enter, which he calls His rest, the same that the apostle Paul told us to labor to enter into? The 1000 years of peace, which comes after the first resurrection.

Look! Neither Joshua nor Moses can give this kind of rest. Neither could they nor did they swear to anyone that they would not enter into it. In order for those people in the wilderness, or Paul, or anyone else that is dead to enter into this rest, they must be raised up in the first resurrection. Joshua and Moses will be a part of the first resurrection, but Jesus is the resurrection.

Those of us whom the Lord has blessed with some understanding know that this change was not made for the sake of clarification, but rather it was made to blind. To hide the fact that Jesus is God, that he was the one that lead Israel in the wilderness for forty years, and that it was he that swore that they would not enter into His rest.

Jesus said to us that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump. Therefore, if you lie about one thing, you must lie about many things in order to support the first lie. With that said, the rewriters ran into another passage in the Bible that informs us that Jesus was the one who was with Moses and Israel in the wilderness. They could not replace this particular word with something similar, so they altered it. The word that they altered is ROCK.

Now, to look at this scripture in question, see I Corinthians 10:1-4. In this scripture, Paul was telling the people that he did not want them to be ignorant about certain facts concerning Israel and how they were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea and were baptized unto Moses. But what he really didn't want was for the people to be ignorant of that Rock that followed Moses and Israel around because that Rock was Christ. This scripture plainly tells us that Jesus was the one in the wilderness and it was he that parted the Red Sea.

In their feeble attempt to hide the presence of Jesus in the days of Moses, they changed the word "Rock" to "Rockmass." What is a rockmass anyway? I couldn't even find the word in the dictionary and I will not try to guess what it means.

But there is one thing that I do know, and that is that this same Rock is the one that said to the Apostle Peter, "On this rock will I build my church." Deuteronomy 32:3-4 says "...ascribe ye greatness unto our God. He is the Rock..." Also II Samuel 22:2, Psalm 18:2, and Psalm 92:15 says, "The Lord is the rock." This rock is Jesus and on himself will he build his church. This is the same stone that the builders have rejected. Paul called him the Chief cornerstone. Jesus told us in a parable that whosoever hear his sayings (words) and do them is like a wise man which built his house on a rock; when the storms came, it stood (St. Matthew 7:24-27). Why would we be wise to take heed to the word of Jesus? Because he is the rock on which the Church is built.

Why have these people rewritten the bible? To hide a doctrine of error. They contended that the God of the Old Testament, who dealt with Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and Moses, is the Father and that his name is Jehovah but, Jesus is only the Son of God and not God. Plus, they say that Jesus is the angel Michael. And, because they read the scripture that says that he is the beginning of the Creation, they also say that Jesus was created and has a beginning, but that Jehovah has been around for eternity.

Look! Jehovah just means Eternal one. There is nothing wrong with Jehovah. IT is used in the place of YAWA (YAWA) and it is talking about just one. But before one started to deal with man, the Bible spoke of two and that seems to elude many people. Even these people, who think they have enough knowledge to rewrite the Bible after their own pattern of thought. Now, what do I mean by two? Go to the very beginning of Genesis, where it starts out saying, "In the beginning God..." This is where two were mentioned, because God was translated from the Hebrew word ELOHIM. Elohim is a uni-plural word which means one family, but with more than one member. For now, there are only two in the family. The Apostle Paul defined Elohim more accurately in Romans 1:20, when he used the word Godhead. When one recognized that there are two (not three), then one is seeing one of the invisible things which Paul spoke of in this verse.

Both members of this holy family are eternal. In Isaiah 57, while one of the members was talking, he also spoke of the other member of the family. Isaiah 57:15: "For thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy: I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones.

Pay Attention to what you have just read. The high and lofty one (1) that dwell with Him (2). They both are mentioned here, they both dwell in the high and lofty place, they both are holy, and they both inhabit eternity (the eternal two). Therefore, they both make up the Godhead.

St. John tells us the same thing in another way. St. John 1:1-2, (Verse 1) "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God." (Verse 2) "The same was in the beginning with God." Man has dealt with only one member of the Godhead, and that is the one that spoke to all of the Prophets and taught the Apostles. That is why he is called the Word, because he did all the talking. Jesus told us that no man has even seen the Father, nor heard his voice.

THE FOUR WINDS OF HEAVEN

No one has questioned the longevity of the Father, but there are those that dare question the longevity of the Son. Now, let's go to Hebrews 7:1-3. (Verse 1) "For this Melchisedec, king of Salem, priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kinks, and blessed him;" (Verse 2) "To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all; first being by interpretation King of righteousness, and after that also King of Salem, which is King of Peace;" (Verse 3) "Without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like unto the Son of God; abideth a priest continually." Now pay attention to what this scripture is saying. This Melchisedec is "MADE LIKE UNTO THE SON OF GOD." He is being compared to Jesus. Therefore, if he doesn't have mother, father, descent, or a beginning of days, or end of life, neither does Jesus. Now, if that is not one who inhabits eternity, who is?

As far as Jesus being Michael the angel, just remember, all of the angels were created and that gives them a beginning. Plus, there is a clear separation made between Jesus and the angels. See Hebrews 1:5. "For unto which of the angels said he at any time, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son?" This scripture does not say unto which of the other angels. It says "unto which of the angels said he at anytime, Thou art my Son?" I know of NO angel at ANYTIME. God called him his Son, and as I said earlier, Michael is an angel.

Therefore, one must always look upon the new and revised Bibles an eye of suspect. There might be some publishers that really mean well when they put out a revised version of the Bible. But in many cases however, people have suffered because of the actions of others that meant well. Even King Solomon said in proverbs 14:12, "There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death."

There are many other ways that are used to indoctrinate people into various denominational teaching without using revised versions of the Bible. Some will give you the standard Bible and then give you several other books to interpret for you. I have seen people put the Bible down and just read the little side books.

Some are indoctrinated through recitals. They are lead through a maze of recitals on what they believe is true and after a number of sustained periods of repeating that you believe something, eventually you will...even if you read something that disproves it.

When I consider how intelligent people are when it comes to making money, how energetic and enthusiastic they are in their various businesses and careers, how careful and thorough they are when their finances are on the line, and how careless and gullible they are when it comes to the word of God, I am lead to the conclusion that they just do not believe that there is a God. Either that, or they are not aware of the severe consequences of failing to serve him.

To all true believers of the undisputed word of God, we wish you God speed in the name of our Lord and Savior, Jesus the Christ, Amen.
